RECIPROCITY BILL PASSED IN HOUSE

Taft's Canadian Agreement is Finally Voted Upon, After Six Days Debate.

NO AMENDMENTS TO MEASURE

Practically Same as Passed by Preceding Congress—The Vote Was 265 to 89—Day in the House.

Washington, April 21.—President Taft's Canadian reciprocity agreement supported by all bu. a handful of Democrats, and opposed by a majority of the Republicans passed the House of Representatives early this evening by a vote of 265 to 89. With nearly 200 Democrats in control and their action endorsed by a large body of Republicans the bill to put the agreement in force was adopted with no amendments, and in almost identically the form in which it passed the House in the last session of the preceding Congress,

The bill sees to put into effect the formal agreement reached between President Taft and members of the Canadian cabinet for a reduction of tariff rates on many articles and free trade in many others across the Canadian border. Added to it by the Democratic leaders is a section which "authorizes and requests" President Taft to make further efforts to secure still freer trade relations with Canada, in the form of additional reciprocal relations.

The passage of the bill marked the close of a fight that had raged in the House for six days. Amendments were admitted in the House today for almost every section of the bill, and in each case they were rejected by an overwhelming vote given by the friends of the measure on both sides of the House on the theory that any amendment would nullify it.

The Democrats voted for it. As in the case when the bill passed at the preceding session of Congress, a majority of the Republicans were found against it, the party vote being 67 for and 78 opposed. Among the Democrats voting in the negative were:

Dougheon, Gudger and Webb, North Carolina.

The attempt to amend the agreement began with the final reading of the bill at 3 o'clock. The threats of Republicans opposed to the measure to make the Democrats vote against amendments for free meat, free lumber and free agricultural machinery, were carried out, but as their party leaders declared that any amendment would defeat the whole trade agreement they cheerfully voted these amendments down.

The Republicans who taunted them with opposing free admission of these important products were met with the assertion that the Democrats would lay the new "farmers free list bill" before the House next week and that an opportunity would then be given to vote for free meat, machinery, lumber and a score of other things. This defense was met by Republican standpatters with the charge that the Democrats knew the free list bill could not pass the Senate nor secure the President's approval.

The section of the bill relating to free admission of pulp and paper provoked the sharpest discussion, drawing from Representatives Mann, of Illinois, the Republican leader, the statement that it was exastly in the terms agreed upon by the two countries.

"Let's bring Canada down here and surrender the halls of Congress to them," exclaimed Mr. Cannon.

"I challenge the statement that we are going to pass the free list bill later on with the expectation that it will not become a law," said Democratic Leader Underwood in reply to statements from Republican opponents of the reciprocity bill." The free list bill will become a law, or the Republican Senate that kills it or the Republican President that votes it will never be heard from again."

News Received at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Ont., April 21.—News of the heavy majority given reciprocity at Washington was received with much satisfaction by the government and liberal members, who are supporting the measure here. The Canadian opponents of the pact are now placing their faith in the hope that the United States Senate will long delay the bill or kill it.

"The vote at Washington today will be a great aid to the Canadian friends of reciprocity," said a member of the Dominion government. "I expect to see the opposition at Ottawa collapse in the course of a few days and I believe the measure will be finally passed by the parliament as soon as it is finally dealt with at Washington."

Reciprocity Called Swindle.

Boston, Mass., April 21.—Reciprocity with Canada was dubbed a swindle, the tariff was upheld, New England was characterized as a traitor to the West, and Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, was called a "demagogue who should be treated with a bed slat," in an address by Senator LaFayette Young, of Iowa, before the Boston City Club tonight. "The future of the Republican party," was the announced subject of Senator Young's remarks, but he took advantage of permission accorded him of "speaking on anything I please."

DEATH TO THE WHOLE FAMILY

Fear of Impending Starvation Caused Father and Mother to Give Poison to Themselves and Two Children.

Chicago, April 21.—Fear of impending starvation today caused a father and mother to administer strychnine to themselves and their two children, both under four years of age. The mother, Mrs. Honone Dziurgot, and the older child, Joseph, are dead. The father and baby are in a hospital. It is said that both will recover.

Dziurgot tonight told of the poverty which followed long illness and then related the desperate agreement with his wife that the two should poison themselves and their babies.

"With my last 25 cents," he said, "I bought the poison at a drug store. My wife and I mixed it in the little milk we had left. Some was given to the children, my wife drank some, and I drank the remainder. There was not enough for me, or I would have died with my wife and my boy."

BALLOONS MET WITH MISHAP.

Made Rough Landing In Germany—Passenger Uninjured.

Brunswick, Germany, April 21.—The dirigible balloon Varseval VI met with a mishap ten miles north of this place today and was forced to make a rough landing. The passengers escaped injury and the airship was not seriously damaged, though it lies partly in a swamp and will of necessity be dismantled and sent to Bitterfield by train.

The accident brought to an end what promised to be a successful nonstop flight from Berlin to Amsterdam. The airship, which was occupied by ten persons, including two military officers, of the Netherlands, rose at Berlin at 4:30 o'clock this morning, sailing away toward Amsterdam at a clip of 34 miles an hour. Oebisfelde, Saxony, was passed soon after 1 o'clock, thedirigible going strong despite rather strong wind currents.

Between Isenbuttel and Lieforde the aerial craft was flying low when she encountered a gust of wind that compelled her to slow up. At the moment the free end of the rope that dangled from the car caught in the branches of a great birch tree and gave the airship a yank that broke her balance. This, combined with the high wind made necessary an immediate descent which was fairly well accomplished, though with some strain to the dirigible and the shaking up of her passengers.

UPROAR AT CAMORRA TRIAL.

Unusual and Stormy Scenes Mark the Trial in Italy.

Viterbo, Italy, April 21.—Of all the methods adopted by the surpassed in novelty and effectiveness that of Gaeteno Esposito, who, at the end of a mad harrangue today, tore a glass eye from his head, and, hurling it at the feet of the president, stamped the court. Then he fell in a faint and President Bianchi suspended the sitting.

According to the State, Esposito, who is known as usurrer, is a dangerous malefastor and succeeded "Erricone" Alfano as the head of the Camorro when Alfano fled to the United States there to fall into the hands of Lieut. Petrosino. He is charged with having been one of those who met at Bagnoli and condemned Generro Cuoccolo to death for treachery to his associates in crime.

PREACHERS AND DEBTS.

Virginia Bishop Lays Down the Law to Ministers.

Norfolk, Va., April 21.—Bishop Levi J. Coppin, of Philadelphia, presiding at the Virginia Conference of the A. M. E. Church at Portsmouth, today declared that complaints had been made against preachers for failure to pay their debts. The bishop said while his "church did not elect him a sheriff or bad debt collector, the man who would not pay his honest debts in the ministry could not have his character passed, and is unfit to preach and unworthy of an appointment which he will be refused."

MRS. SCOTT AGAIN GIVEN THE HONOR

CLOSE FIGHT TO THE FINISH

Illinois Woman Greeted With Wild Applause When Vote Was Announced—Required 24 Hours to Count Ballot.

Washington, April 21.—Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, of Illinois, tonight was declared re-elected president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution for the next two years. She received 614 of the 1,086 votes cast and 148 more than her opponent, Mrs. William C. Story, of New York, who received 466 votes. The tellers spent almost 24 hours in counting the votes, which were cast yesterday.

With Mrs. Scott was elected the entire administration ticket, except one vice president general, who received ten votes less than the number necessary to elect and for which position a new ballot will be taken tomorrow.

When Mrs. Scott entered Continental Hall, after the vote had been announced, preceded down the center aisle by a dozen charming young pages and followed by a score more bearing great baskets and arms full of flowers, she was received with wild applause. Scarcely had she mounted the platform before Mrs. Story asked recognition. She declared that she had no bitterness in her heart because of her defeat and urged all the Daughters to uphold, as she intended to do, the hands of their newly elected president-general.

The others elected were: Vice president general in charge of organization of chapters, Mrs. Henry L. Mann; chaplain general, Miss Elizabeth Pierce; recording secretary general, Mrs. Howard T. Hodgkins; corresponding secretary general, Mrs. Wm. Dennis; registrar general, Mrs. Gaius Brumbaugh; treasurer general, Mrs. William D. Hoover; historian general, Mrs. Charles Bassett; assistant historian general, Mrs. Eleanor S. Thompson, and librarian general, Miss Amaryllis Gillette, all residents of the District of Columbia, except Mrs. Bassett, Maryland, and Mrs. Thompson, Massachusetts.

Ten vice president generals were to be elected, but only nine received enough votes. All elected were Scott candidates, as also was Miss Harriet I. Lake, of Iowa, who, although tenth in point of numbers, had ten votes too few to elect. The nine declared elected in the order elected, were:

Miss Sophie Waples, Delaware; Mrs. Clayton R. Truesdall, Ohio; Mrs. Allen P. Perley, Pennsylvania; Mrs. James P. Brayton, Michigan; Mrs. Ben Gray, Jr., Missouri; Mrs. James M. Fowler, Indiana; Mrs. Edwin C. Gregory, North Carolina; Mrs. Chas. B. Bryan, Tennessee, and Mrs. ... H. Edmondson, West Virginia.

Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, of Alabama, was elected an honorary vice president general. Mrs. Elroy M. Avery was re-elected editor of the American Monthly Magazine, the official organ of the D. A. R. In thanking the society for the honor of her re-election Mrs. Scott declared that while the members sometimes different on the "interpretation of questions of privilege, or points of order, when it comes to questions of vital patriotic principles, the D. A. R. heart beats true."

A session tomorrow will bring the Congress to a close.

FOREST FIRES NEAR ROME.

Marked End of Jubilee Exposition—Flee from Villas.

Rome, Italy, April 21.—The celebration of the opening of Ethnographic Exhibition, in connection with the jubilee exposition, came to a spectacular end tonight, when a bursting rocket, sent up during the fireworks display from the top of Monte Mario, set fire to the mountain forest. Before the eyes of thousands of spectators, the flames spread rapidly along the mountain ridge. Inhabitants of nearby villas fled from their homes in great alarm while troops and firemen were rushed to fight the flames.

An illumination and pyrotechnic display hod been arranged as the climax of the day's celebration and thousands of persons witnessed the spectacle. It was at first thought that the fire was a part of the display but the spreading flames sweeping along the ridge revealed what had happened.

By hard work the flames were got under control by midnight and the people returned to their villas. The damage done was small and no fatalities have been rported.

FERRY BOAT CAPSIZED.

Many Women Precipitated in River at Tampa Last Night.

Tampa, Fla., April 21.—The Ol, a launch doing ferry duty across the hillsborough river, at LaFayette street, capsized tonight at 8 o'clock precipitating between 20 and 25 passengers, many of whom were women, into the water. It is thought that two persons were drowned, but this had not been established at a late hour.

The accident as due to overcrowding the launch. The boat capsized in 20 feet of water with the tide running out at a rapid rate.

LAUNCH BOOM FOR HARMON

Ohio Man's Friends in Congress Organize for Coming Presidential Campaign—Some of the More Formidable Rivals.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—Governor Harmon, of Ohio, will have the united and enthusiastic support of the Democratic delegation in Congress from that State in his candidacy for the Presidency in 1912.

This was made evident today when a formal statement was issued to that effect at the conclusion of secret conference of the Ohio Democratic Congressional delegation in the office of Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, the object of which was to formally launch the Presidential boom of Governor Harmon. The campaign in the interest of Governor Harmon's candidacy will be conducted by Lieutenant Governor Nicholls, of Ohio, who read to the delegation a large number of letters he had received, "indicating," he said, "that encouragement is coming from all sections of the country." It was decided to appoint later a committee on publicity and ways and means. After discussing the Presidential prospects over the friends of Governor Harmon made no secret of it that he will have formidable rivals in Bryan, Governor Wilson, of New Jersey and Speaker Champ Clark. The majority, it is understood, most fear Speaer Clark in that respect.

KICKED JEWELS IN STREET.

Horse Sent $200,000 in Diamonds Flying in All Directions.

New York, April 21.—The traditional bull in a chinashop was run a close second this morning by a horse—an aged and totally blind horse—which kicked his way through two big plate glass windows of a jewelry store at Maiden Lane and Broadway and sent the $200,000 worth of diamonds in the windows flying in all directions. Precious stones by the tens of thousands of dollars worth were swept into the street, buried in masses and finely broken glass.

Policemen had all they could do to control the crowds which pushed into the thick of the fray and watched the proprietors and clerks of the jewelry establishment in a mad scramble to pick the gems out of the debris and save everything possible. The jewelers said it would take an inventory to tell if anybody had scurried away with any of the gems.

ABOUT THINGS ON MARS.

Says Canals Are Nothing More Than Earthquake Fissures.

Berkeley, Cal., April 21.—Prof. Robert D. Aiken, one of the astronomers of Lick Observatory, does not believe that there is human life in the panet Mars. In a lecture delivered at the University of California last night he expressed the opinion that the markings seen on the surface of the planet and supposed by some scientists to be canals constructed by intelligent beings for irrigation purposes, are nothing more than earthquake fissures. They are too rough and too wide for canal service, he said. He exhibited photographs in support of this belief.

GIRL STUDENTS TAKEN ILL.

Twenty Were Victims of Pranks of College Boys.

Coshocton, O., April 21.—Twenty girl students of West LaFayette College, were taken violently ill early today and President Back feared that an epidemic had broken out when it was discovered that college boys as a prank, had put oil in the milk of the girls' dormitory. Physicians worked with the girls all day. Eighteen of them have recovered. The other two are still very ill. Expulsions will follow, if the guilty young men are discovered.

Detroit, Mich., April 21.—After eluding his pursuers yesterday and last night, D. K. DeHartier, the aged fisherman who fled from the Mount Clemens shore of Lake St. Clair yesterday in a sail boat after the shooting of Deputy Sheriff Matthews, is today on the shallow water of Canadian marsher, where the power boats of the American and Canadian officials could not follow him. The officials were further deterred by the fugitive's long range rifle. Plans were made to set fire to the marsh grass and drive the old man from his retreat.

Washington, April 21.—President Taft today tentatively accepted an invitation to address the world's Christian Endeavor convention at Atlantic City in July.

INSURGENTS GIVEN REBUKE IN SENATE

WIDENS BREACH OF FACTIONS

Regular Organization Determined to Check Activities of Insurgents. Contest in Connection With Resolution.

Washington, April 21.—Formal demands made today by insurgent Republican senators that they be recognized as an organization distinct from the Republican majority of the Senate and that they be given one-fourth of all the majority membership committees and control of these assignments, were rejected by a vote of seven to four at a meeting of the Senate Committee on Committees.

Representatives of the regular Republican organization determined to check the insurgents' demand after it was learned that President Taft resented the insurgent attitude in opposing his policies and the activities of this minority faction in putting barriers in the way of his renomination for the presidency in 1912. This was the real reason for the widening of the breach between regulars and insurgents was freely stated by some of the majority members.

The contest today was in connection with a resolution introduced by Senator LaFollette citing that Senators Clapp, LaFollette, Bourne, Borah, Brown, Dixon, Cummins, Bristow, Crawford, Gronna, Poindexter and Works constitute a separate progressive Republican division on public questions and pledging the Committee on Committees to accord the progressives their proportional representation of one out of every four Republican members on all committees, these progressive members to be designated the four progressive Republican members of the Committee on Committees. All the Republican regulars insisted that there was no precedent for the recognition of a minority within the party.

Some of them predicted that the adoption of such a resolution would disrupt the party as similar demands would have to be dealt with later in party conventions. The vote of the resolution follows:

For—LaFollette, Bourne, Cummins, and Bristow.

Against—Gallinger, Lodge, Penrose, Heyburn, Warren, Smoot and Bradley.

HONOR SYSTEM ADOPTED.

To Prevail Hereafter at A. & M. College—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., April 21—What is rightfully regarded as one of the most important happenings at the A. & M. College in the last decade, and one that will have as far reaching effects as the obliterature of e form of hazing at the college three years ago, was the adoption of an Honor System to govern all preliminary and final examinations, at a meeting of the entire student body in Pullen Hall Thursday morning of last week.

For the past month a committee composed of the most representative men in the various classes, has been quietly at work examining the various forms of Honor Systems in vogue at some of the leading colleges in the country. After careful consideration, the Honor System as at present in force at the University of South Carolina was accepted in all its most essential details as embodying the best ideas yet put forward for the workings of such a system.

Capt. Simmons, of the general staff of the U. S. Army, expressed great surprise and pleasure at the stalwart size of the students in the A. & M. Battalion. Capt. Simmons was on a round of visits to the various colleges receiving aid from the United States government and has made similar inspections before and hence he was in a position to form a good comparative judgment. He also commended the neatness of the uniforms, guns, and accautrements.

Mrs. F. L. Stevens, wife of Prof. Stevens of the Agricultural Department, has gone to Jacksonville, Fla., to attend the Southern Conference on Education.

Prof. W. H. Browne, Jr., head of the Department of Electrical Engineering, was called to Baltimore Wednesday by the serious illness of his mother. Mrs. Browne is the wife of Prof. William Hand Browne, of Johns Hopkins University.

The excavation work for the two wings for the new dormitory is nearly completed and the brick-laying will begin in a few days.

Tuskegee, Ala., April 21.—The report which originated yesterday in Dallas, Texas, that Booker T. Washington and a number of wealthy Northern negroes would try to gain control of the International & Great Northern Railroad was denied here today by Emmet J. Scott, private secretary of the negro educator. According to the report they were to try to buy controlling interest in the road at the receivership sale in Palestine, Texas, on May 15th.

NO WAY TO AVOID CONFLICT

Official Mexico Seems Unable to Stop Attack on Juarez—Government Ignores Madero Ultimatum. Situation.

Mexico City, April 21.—While all devout Catholics at the request of the archbishop today began to join in a prayer for the re-establishment of peace, official Mexico sees no way to avoid the conflict at Juarez.

Still refusing to treat with the rebels, the government has ignored the "ultimatum" issued by Francisco I. Madero, Jr., that Diaz resign the presidency.

Optimists continue to believe that the promised battle may yet be avoided, but the number of optimists in Mexico continues to grow smaller each day and tonight residents of the capital have a new cause for apprehension.

Two days ago a controversy arose at the agricultural school between the students and the director. A small detachment of soldiers was sent to the institution to preserve order. The incident appeared closed when the students of the school of medicine came forward with grievances last night. After having received promises of support from Puebla schools today the 'student question" assumed a political character.

At a mass meeting tonight the students decided to join the "peaceful wing" of the revolution and ask President Diaz to resign.

That President Diaz thinks of yielding to the terms is not regarded as the remotest possibility.

The subject most discussed tonight is the probable outcome of the battle at Juarez. Few here believe that Madero has any chance to win.

WAKE FOREST VS. A. & M.

Capt. Phil. Utley Will Pitch ame Tomorrow Against Farmers.

(Special to Raleigh Times.)

Wake Forest, April 20.—Great was the rejoicing when it was announced this morning that Phil Utley will twirl the game against A. & M. at Raleigh tomorrow. This will be the first game that he has pitched since he held the University of North Carolina to one hit in thirteen innings in Raleigh last year. He has pitched in one practice game this year and yesterday in the gymnasium where the team practiced on account of rain. He seemed to have all of his old-time form. It is true that A. & M. has won two games this season but with Utley in the box Wae Forest hopes that it will be a different tune tomorrow. His greatest asset has at all times been his headwork and with his twisters breaking as before he should be able to hold the A. & M. team to a standstill.

For the first time in four years an athletic contset was called at this place on account of rain, when yesterday afternoon the game with Delaware was called off. The second of the games scheduled with them will be played this afternoon.

ENGLAND'S COPYRIGHT BILL.

Passes Second Reading In the House of Commons.

London, April 21.—The government's long promised copyright bill passed it second reading in the House of Commons. The measure not only sets forth the amendments based on the copyright convention of 1908, but codifies the common law on copyright and the existing statutes, numbering about twenty. Copyright under the amended law would run as a general rule during the life of the author and fifty years after. Foreign authors may acquire a copyright by making first publication within British dominions, but may be deprived of it by the government if the country to which they belong refuse adequate protection to British authors.

Imprisonment is submitted for a fine as a punishment for piracy and there is a clause giving authors protection against stage performances of any copyrighted work from pirated copies.

Photographs, gramophone records nd paerforated music roles are to have copyright, tehe term being for fifty years from the time the engative or plate is made.

REQUEST OF LEGISLATURE.

Arkansas Governor Asked to Intrfere With Proposed Execution.

Little Rock, Ark., April 21.—The Arkansas State Leislature today adopted a concurrent resolution directing Governor Donahey to interfere with the proposed eecution of Henry Peace at Ashdown, today, convicted and sentenced to death for wife murder.

Peace admits the killing of his wife and declares that he is a poor, uneducated man and that life holds out very little for him.

The Governor last night refused to interfere with the sentence of the court.

Washington, April 21.—"Progressive" Republicanism in the Senate received a serious set-back today when by a vote of seven to four the Republican committee on committees decided not to recognize the progressive Republicans formally as an organization.

Tampa, Fla., April 21.—A launch with 25 passeners, most of them women capsized in the Hillisborouh river shortly after 8 o'clock tonight. It is expected all were rescued. The river is being dragged for bodies. The launch wa sdoing ferry service while a bridge is out of commission.

ATTACK ON JUAREZ IS EXPECTED SOON

Negotiations Between Rebels and Mexican Government Now Called Off.

MADERO DEMANDS REJECTED

Insurrctos Troops Begin to March Out of Hills—No Attempt to Hurry Attack — Mexican Situation.

El Paso, Texas, April 21.—All negotiations between the insurrectos and the Mexican government were officially called off late today. Oscar Braniff and Esquivel Obregon, of Mexico City, who have been trying to get Madero to accept peace proposals, received a telegram this afternoon, calling off all negotiations. This message came just after they had sent a messenger under a flag of truce with a final appeal to the rebel leader

The message was from Mexico City, although they refused to say who sent it. It informed them that the demands of Madero were such that they could not be entertained. Already the two volunteer peace commissioners had given up hope and had issued a statement throwing the blame for failure on Madero.

Simultaneously with the receipt of the telegram from Mexico City, the insurrecto troops began to march out of the hills and canons by the hundreds and move closer to Juarez, as if preparing for an attack. It soon appeared, however, that they were not hurrying to an attack.

The troop movement proved to be Villa's command coming from its camp in the mountains to take up its position with the rest of the rebel army.

All day Madero's unvaried statement to reporters was that nothing had devolped to make him change his decision of yesterday to open the battle today. Among the messages received by Madero was one from Globe, Ariz., offering him a hundred Americans for his army.

Braniff and Obregan peace commissioners, today gave out a statement of the proposals for settling the trouble and declared that Madero would be to blame for the consequences of the war, inasmuch as he could at present accept a compromise with good grace. They declared that they represent a "perfectly defined public sentiment" in Mexico. Their statement says:

'The public demands are:

"First, that concrete guarantees be forthcoming from the Mexican government, that the promises and reforms, already partly executed will be implanted and developed as rapidly as practically possible.

"Second, that with this uaranty perfected, the armed rebellion has carried its avowed principles into triumph and as a consequence ceases thereafter to be justified, and its persistence renders it dangerous to our future peace and welfare, and therefore unpatriotic and undeserving of further public support.

"Third, that the retirement of President Diaz is not necessary to insure compliance by the government with its promises; but on the contrary, would reinstate the demoralizing precedent of constituted authority yielding to force of arms.

"Fourth, that a compromise would not only demonstrate to the world the good sense, coolness and patriotism of the Mexican public end thus obtain a complete retrieval of its momentarly lost prestige and credit abroad, but would result in the creation of political parties similar to those that have brought about in the United States the effective government by the people and for the people.

"We have presented the above resolution to the directors of the revolution and pointed out the terrible responsibility to fall on them if they cast aside these public demands for conciliation and plunge our country into calamitous adventures.

"We know that the gentlemen are patriotic, and that, if left to think and feel for themselves, will listen to the call of their brethren and avoid dangerous rocks ahead; and our only fear is, therefore, in the possibility of their yielding to influence other than their own."

Government After Report.

Washington, April 21.—The American government is seeking to collect expeditiously a complete report of all the facts bearing on the question of American neutrality in the recent border warfare of the Mexican revolution in order to be able to issue a prompt response to Mexico's representations. The War Department today sent a second telegram to Colonel Shunk, commanding the troops at Douglas, Ariz., asking him to hurry his report on all the incidents affecting the United States in the battles of Agua Prieta.

That Mexico may have no complaint of lack of precautions by the United States to prevent violations of neutrality, the War Department today repeated by telegraphy its prev-

This was the second time that Moore has shut out New York this year at a total cost of three hits. Magee was the batting and fielding star. He made two wonderful one hand running catches, robbing Snodgrass of a probable home run and Murray of a triple, and he scored Knabe and himself in the first inning with a home run drive and later sent Lobert home with a hard grounder which Bridwell's clever fielding saved from a base hit.

Ford allowed fewer hits than his rival, but after Milan and Schaefer had singled in the first inning, he made a wild throw allowing the only run of the game. Catcher Street, of Washington, threw out four of the five men who tried to steal bases on him.

FOURTH TOWN WANTED.

Eastern Carolina Club Directors Meet in Goldsboro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., April 21.—The directors of the Eastern North Carolina Baseball League were in session in this city last night with the following towns represented: Raleigh, Rocky Mount and Goldsboro. Recently Wilmington stated that they were ready for a four-club league so President Whitaker, of Raleigh, called a meeting to be held in this city last night, but Wilmington failed to send a representative to the meeting, and therefore, nothing was accomplished in the way of having a four-club league. Goldsboro, Raleigh and Rocky Mount are ready to play ball and the only trouble now is to get some other town to join in and make the league complete. It doesn't seem possible that Wilson would show the "White Feather," and too, where are all the sports in Newbern and Kinston, that they "don't sit up and take notice," at the opportunity they are letting go by? We don't think it is necessary to try and explain the necessity of having baseball, but surely some town in Eastern North Carolina will come to the rescue, for a town without baseball will be a dead issue during the coming Summer months. Wilson and Wilmington have, it seems, given up the gun, so let some other town get busy and start the ball rolling. Come on and join the true sports backing Raleigh, Rocky Mount and Goldsboro—the water is fine.

The city Democratic primary for mayor, aldermen and one member of the Board of Public Works, was held in this city yesterday without serious opposition to any of the present incumbents. Mr. A. T. Griffin received a good majority of votes over his opponent for the vacancy in the Board of Public Works, while Mayor Higgins had no opposition. The day passed off very quietly.

Second flight, vice president's cup—W. A. Fisher defeated W. D. McMillan, Jr., 6 up and 5 to play; J. W. Carmichael defeated H. D. W. Rapalje, one up (20 holes).

Fourth flight, governor's cup—Mr. Shaw defeated Donald MacRae, and W. R. Sullivan defeated J. R. Murchison.

The winners in the semi-finals as announced above will play an 18 holes match play this afternoon for the respective cups given by the officials of the club. The winner up in each flight will receive half-dozen golf balls. All prizes will be awarded at the club house at the conclusion of the matches.

OAK RIDGE'S FINE RECORD.

Baseball Team Not Scored Against in Last Five Games.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Oak Ridge, N. C., April 21.—By defeating St. Mary's College today at Belmont, Oak Ridge has the distinction of not having been scored against in the last five games. Monday the team won over Elon College at Burlington, by a score of eight to nothing, yesterday it defeated North Carolina Collegiate Institute on the grounds of the latter by the score of 11 to nothing. Tomorrow it meets the strong Davidson College team at Davidson.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 21.—Tommy Ryan announced today that Howard Morrow, his candidate for the middleweight championship, had been matched with Jack Dillon, of Indianapolis, at Buffalo, before the International Athletic Club on May 8th.

CAROLINA WINS AGAIN.

Took Two out of Three from Virginia on the Diamond.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Chapel Hill, April 21.—Raymond Lee, the lanky Mount Olive youth, pitched Carolina to another victory over Virginia this afternoon, winning again by the close score of one to nothing.

A continuous telegraphic report from Charlottesville brought the news to the Carolina students on the "Hill" and Lee is the hero of the hour.

Carolina's lone tally came in the second inning when Pember went to first on a fielders' choice, took third on Hane's double to right and scored on Witherington's infield hit. From then on the game was a battle royal between Lee and Rixey, the Tar Heel twirler having the slight advantage and pitching superb ball in pinches. Four times Virginia advanced a man as far as third corner but on such occasions Lee was invincible and there was no score for the orange and blue. Douglas at short, played a great game for Virginia, while Pember in left, was the particular star for Carolina. The fielding of both infields was nothing less than spectacular. Score:

Carolina .. ..010 000 000—1 5 2
Virginia .. ..000 000 000—0 3 1

Lee and Witherington; Rixey, Finlay and Anderson. Struck out by Lee 7; Rixley 8; sacrifice hits, Hanes, Carter, Rixey, Hume 2, Blakney and Neff; two-base hits Hanes and Neff; umpire Chewing; attendance 1,600.

This victory over Virginia gives Carolina the series, the first game going to Virginia 3 to 1 in Greensboro, the second to Carolina 1 to 0 in Charlotte and today's victory 1 to 0 for the Tar Heels. This gives Carolina a great step towards this year's Southern championship.

ROCKY MOUNT ANXIOUS.

Wilmington Not Represented—Fourth Town Now Wanted for League.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., April 21.—What might be termed the corporal's guard of the six-club Eastern Carolina League met last night at Dr. Johnson's office in Goldsboro in response to a call from the president, Dr. Joel Whitaker. While there were few that held out hopes for a six-club league, there have been many that believe that four clubs could be secured, and there was an undaunted spirit of the meeting last night to secure the fourth member if possible, Raleigh, Rocky Mount and Goldsboro being willing to organize and play ball. The Raleigh franchise was represented by Mr. C. B. Taylor, the Goldsboro franchise by Mr. George Dewey, and the Rocky Mount franchise by Mr. W. S. Moye. It was expected that Mr. Bason, who had signified a willingness of taking over the franchise in Wilmington and entering a four-club league, would be present, however, he did not put in his appearance and it looks as though the Sailors are just as dead on the four-club proposition as they were on the six.

Every club represented, three in all, were staunch in their position of wanting to enter a four-club league for a short season and a small salary limit, and it was discussed and ways and means devised to, if possible, secoure a fourth club.

BRITISH CHESS PLAYERS.

Thirteenth Annual Cable Match Was Started Yesterday.

New York, April 21.—The British chess players, who have been one more leg to capture on the Newnes trophy before it becomes their permanent property, started the 13th annual Anglo-American Cable Chess Match today by gaining the first victory. Of the ten games begun, only two were finished when the boards were left at 7 o'clock tonight (New York time) and of these one was taken by Amesburn, of Liverpool, from Frank J. Marshall, the United States champion; the other was drawn between A. B. Hedges, of Staton Island, and H. E. Atkins, the British chess federation champion.

Play will be resumed tomorrow with the score standing 1 1-2 to 1-2 in favor of the English players, but as the game at the sixth board looked tonight, as a probable American victory, the score may be evened up quickly tomorrow. On the other seven boards, the results are altogether problematical.

Montgomery, Ala., April 21.—Jacksonville, Fla., was selected by the Southern Gas Association today for the 1912 convention. Officers were elected as follows: H. G. Hoyt, Jacksonville, Fla., president; C. E. White, Montgomery, Ala., first vice president; James Ferrier, Rome, Ga., second vice president; E. D. Brewer, Atlanta, Ga., secretary and treasurer. A barbecue near the city today will wind up the convention.

Montgomery, Ala., April 21.—Petitions for Sunday baseball in Montgomery were circulated and freely signed among the several thousand patrons of the game yesterday afternoon. It is understood that the petitions will be submitted to the five commissioners of Montgomery who, it is claimed, have the power to regulate Sunday pastimes within the city's police jurisdiction.

CONFESSION OF PREACHER.

Lutheran Minister at Chicago Admits Having Three Wives.

Chicago, April 20.—Kurtz Carlson, who says his real name is Kurtz Meuller, and that he is an ordained Lutheran preacher, today pleaded guilty in the municipal court to having three wives living. He was arraigned on complaint of the third wife, whom he described as his "true love" in his story to the court, he said he thought that his first marriage "should not be held against him."

These are the three wives, and the reasons he married or left them, as given by Mueller:

Wife No. 1, Kate Mazer Mueler, of Sutton, Neb., married her after three day acquaintance because the deacons of his church said it was not good for a young pastor to remain unmarried; after four years left her because of her "simplicity of mind," and his own "elevated mentality." She is the mother of three of his children.

Wife No. 2, Annie Deblock Mueller, of Detroit, Mich. She married him for his money ten months after he left his first wife. After two months she left him; is the mother of one child.

Wife No. 3, Amelia Fehl Carlson, Chicago, his "true love." Married her eighteen months ago in Chicago, because he loved her.

Mueller has been working as an electrician. He said he was educated for the ministry at Springfield, Ill., and Saginaw, Mich., and his first charge was at Sutton, Neb., when he was 22 years old.

Carlson said that his uncle, Rev. Schlutius, of Paxton, Ill., told his third wife about the others and then the trouble began. He was held in $2,000 bond.

Editor's Mind Wanders.

The editor sat in his office whence all but him had fled, and he wished that every last dead beat was in his grave—stone dead. His mind then wandered far away to the time when he should die, and his royal editorial soul go shooting to the sky; when he'd roam the fields of Paradise and sail o'er Jasper seas and all things glorious would combine his every sense to please. He thought then how he'd look across the great gulf dark and drear, that'll yawn between his happy soul and those who swindled here, and when for water they would call, and in agony they caper, he'd shout to them: "Just quench your thirst with the due that's on your paper."—Exchange.

Spartanburg, S. C., April 21.—After being out only 11 minutes here today a jury returned a verdict of guilty against Gary Gist, a negro and five minutes later Judge John S. Wilson sentenced him to be hanged on May 26th. Gist was convicted of attacking a white woman on February 26th.

STATE BOUNDARY DISPUTE

Attorney General Returns from Hearings in the Controversy—Rifle Practice Winners—The New Health Laws—Chinaman.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 21.—Attorney General Bickett, just back from a stay of several days in the extreme western section of the State taking testimony in the North Carolina vs. Tennessee boundary line dispute pending the past two years, says the taking of evidence for this State will be finished during May and that then the testimony for Tennessee will be taken in that State, all evidence to be in by July 1st, most probably so that the evidence and argument can be presented to the United States Supreme Court soon thereafter with hope of speedy decision.

He says that he has just unearthed a field note book of Col. William Davenport, who was the surveyor on the part of North Carolina for running the State line in 1821, the book being the companion and key for the official map made at that time. This book was found recently in a secret drawer of an old sideboard in the old family residence of Col. Davenport, now occupied by his grandson, Col. William Davenport Jones. Mr. Bickett says the note book gives in detail the survey mile by mile, for the 116 miles surveyed and fully bears out the contentions of North Carolina. The territory in dispute is about 20 miles by three miles and involves property that it is estimated that development will bing to the value of more than one million dollars. The Attorney General says this State was forced to bring the suit to settle the dispute which was ringing about a state of lawlessness and a clash of authority that bid fair to bring Winchester rifles into play among the people.

Adjutant General Leinster announced today that the team of Company B, Raleigh, won the first prize of $20 in the competitive shoot of the Third Regiment here the past three days. The second prize of $10 went to Company G, Reidsville. The winner of the highest individual score Private J. J. Beavers, Company G, Reidsville, and the winner of the second prize Corporal Robert E. Lee, of Company B, Raleigh. These made respectively 123 and 121 out of a possible 150. The scores in detail are not given out owing to the competitive shoots that are yet to be held for Second Regiment teams at Goldsboro, April 25th to 27th, and for the First Regiment at Gastonia, May 3rd to 5th.

Attorney General Bickett is to be asked for a ruling on the new State health laws as revised by the General Assembly in the closing days of the last session, especialy as to quarantine and vaccination for smallpox. The Wake county authorities rule that the new law eliminates compulsory quarantine, prescribing merely that physicians and quaratnine officers may quarantine and makes specifically compulsory vaccination much to the disgust of those who oppose general vaccination on the ground that rigid quarantine is the logical method of combating the disease. Some who are glad of the change say that the quarantine system has been costing the county, the town and the State authorities very many thousands of dollars every year and that with the vaccination safeguard quarantine is needless while vaccination will cost far less. Interesting developments are expected in the matter. Physicians are said to be generally gratified at the change of base in the law.

The capital is $5,000 and the principal incorporator J. H. Williams.

Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman, just back from Washington where he went to join a Wilmington delegation in the interest of Sam Lee, the wealthy Chinaman, who is having trouble in getting back into this country after a two-years trip to China, says the Chinaman has a right knotty complication to overcome under the operation of the Exclusion Act but that the indications are that the Department of Commerce and Labor will remove his disabilities and allow him to return to Wilmington and take up his permanent residence.

Announcement is made that the North Carolina Division, Travelers Protective Association, meets in Raleigh May 5th. There are 11 posts and 800 members with posts at High Point, Raleigh, Asheville, Wilmington, Rocky Mount, Wilson, Mt. Airy and Hickory. Big barbecue. J. J. Norman, Winston-Salem, president; C. C. McLean, Greensboro, secretary.

The initial run of President Varner and the Central Committee of the State Central Highway over the proposed route from Morehead to the Tennessee line starts at Morehead May 8th, makes Newbern May 9th; Kinston May 10th; Goldsboro May 11th; Smithfield May 12th; and Raleigh May 13th. This constitutes the first heat. There will be Central Highway days and public demonstrations at each stop. Then the trip the first week in June will start in Madison county, coming east through 13 counties to Durham, completing the tour.

THE SANDERS MATTER.

Why Frank Sanders Fled the Federal Court at Newbern Last October.

To the Editor of the Star:

The fact that Frank Sanders fled the Federal court last October at Newbern has been news that has been broadcasted over the State, his fleeing deeply regretted by his family, and most mercilessly condemned by his interested enemies. Why he fled no paper has had the facts to state. If all the facts were known, and the public eye could penetrate the scenes enacted behind the curtain of the conspirators the honest public sentiment would be changed to a sense, if not approval, to at least one of a pardonable act. Dating back to October, 1909, when Y. Z. Newberry, mayor of Newport, was murdered, a conspiracy was formed, its membership not wholly confined to Newport, its object being to implicate and destroy both Jack and Frank Sanders.

The ingenuity of the conspirators was crafty and deceitful. The public mind must be poisoned against these men, and the first act was a communication published in the News and Observer, pretended to have been written at Newport by one of its citizens as special correspondent, but this communication was concocted and dictated by at least two of the conspirators—one not a resident of Newport. This communication boldly charged that Jack Sanders did the shooting and was arrested on the spot with the gun in his hand, hot and smoking.

On trial it was proven by the oath of the sheriff of the county that it was fully 17 hours after the murder that the arrest of Jack Sanders and his gun was made. But the purpose of the false article had been accomplished and public sentiment ran high against the Sanders boys.

They were arraigned and tried at once and no mightier effort was ever made to convict. Yet with public sentiment poisoned and red hot against them the evidence was so conclusive in their favor that the 12 jurors, strangers and wholly unknown to the prisoners, took but a short deliberation to return their verdict of "Not Guilty."

The same conspirators who plotted and labored to destroy Jack and Frank Sanders, October, 1909, are actively at work against Frank Sanders today and are resorting to the same vile means of attempting to poison the public mind, hoping their vengeance may be crowned with success and Frank Sanders sent to the penitentiary and going further in their hopes to destroy every influence that might bar their malicious efforts, they have enlarged and broadened their charges and denunciations to include the entire Sanders family. Both in the News and Observer and Raleigh Daily Times communications have been sent from Newbern with slanderous articles against the entire Sanders family. Subtle, crafty, and unscrupulous, these conspirators fed with venom the pens of these correspondents through their special agency residing in Newbern. It affords the writer and his family much gratification to receive assurances from the editors of the News and Observer and the Raleigh Daily Times that they do not share in the sentiment of the objected to communications and will announce this in their respective papers. Yes, Frank Sanders fled the Federal court, but he will be at its next term in Newbern to meet the malicious indictments of his prosecutors. His bondsmen shall not lose and his honor, Judge Connor, shall not have cause to share the base opinions his malicious prosectors would have him do.

The history of the case is this: The culmination of the conspiracy resulted in a report that Frank Sanders on a certain day in October, 1910, in the town of Newport, sold some one a drink of liquor—this was the only charge. He was arrested, handcuffed, and taken to Newbern, directly before the court, as the case would not be called before the next week his lawyer asked his release under bond.

Now comes the part that filled Frank Sanders' mind with astonishment and fear.

He knew several cases for trial at that term of the court for illicit distilling, the distills having been captured and the defendants had been bonded, some for $200 and others not over $250.

For the charge of the minor offense of retailing (one offense only) he had a right to suppose his bond would be a small one and especially as this was the first case he ever had in this court. The bond required was $1,000. He went back home, his mind filled with forebodings, restless and unable to solve the cause of the excessive bond. He began to drink heavily and on Sunday night he attempted suicide by taking laudanum. His wife sent for me hurriedly, saying Frank was at death's door and to come quickly. I went, but before I got to his home he awoke enough to stagger to his buggy, his wife begging him not to start as he would never reach Newport, but he said he was under a $1,000 bond and must be in Newbern before court was called. He got there, heard of some of the false charges that had been made to the district attorney denouncing him as a desperado and lawless brigand and a murderer, and knowing the unscrupulous character of his persecutors he pictured in his imagination, that the excessive bond and rough manner of his arrest must be because of some heinous offense his malicious prosecutors had allaged against him, and with his mind dazed from drink and drugs and his nervous system shattered and prostrated, it is not a wonder that he was excited into an abnormal fear and under these conditions imprudently fled the court, greatly to the regret of his family and friends. None of the family have ever been convicted of crime and two of us were volunteers and served four years in the Confederate army, at the front. The writer is a strong temperance man, who never smoked, chewed, nor drank, and has ever aligned himself on the moral side of every question.

The public can see the importance of this defense, to whom it is most respectfully submitted.

HORSE CASE TRIED.

Mr. Mills Wins in Case With Dr. Maxwell—Whiteville News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., April 21.—An interesting little case was yesterday tried in court which has been hanging fire and postponed for a longtime. Some three years ago a Mr. Mills, a stock dealer, at that time living in Whiteville, but now a resident of Wilmington, sold Dr. H. B. Maxwell a pair of horses for $250. Dr. Maxwell paid for the horses when delivered but that night found one of them down, and which horse was never any good to him, being diseased. He went to Wilmington personally to see Mr. Mills, who refused to make good the loss. After feeding the horses for several months the doctor sold them for $195. Col. J. B. Schulken represented Mr. Mills and Messrs. Lyon & Greer Dr. Maxwell. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant, taxing Dr. Maxwell with the costs.

There is renewed talk about a cotton factory for Whiteville as soon as the market authorizes its construction. It is thought that money can be raised among the farmers in our county to build the mill, backed by subscriptions from the towns.

The convict force is now at work building a good road from Bolton in the direction of Wilmington. When this work is completed they will be carried into Ransom township.

Strawberries are selling at from $3.75 to $4 per crate and the Klondyke berry brings as high as $6. Growers are well pleased thus far with prices and if they only held up farmers will have money to burn. The crop is turning out better than at one time expected, the recent rains having improved the berries and the cold snap retarding work of the weevil.

FIVE NEGROES BURNED.

(Lumberton Robesonian.)

Bladenboro, N. C., April 20.—Five negroes, four of them children ranging in age from two to five years, one of them a girl 20 years old, were burned to death at Bladenboro Tuesday night in a fire which destroyed the house they occupied, which belonged to Mr. H. C. Bridgers of that place. They were the children of Reuben Branson and wife, who were away from home at the time. The fire occurred between 8 and 9 o'clock and was caused by the explosion of a lamp while all the occupants were asleep. A negro man who was in the house waked after his bed was in uames and barely had time to jump out of a window.

WASHINGTON PRIMARIES.

Little Interest in Municipal Politics in Beaufort Metropolis.

(Spical Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., April 21.—Washington's first legalized primary for the nomination of municipal officers was held today. The vote was very light and but little interest taken. The following ticket was nominated: For Mayor, C. H. Harding; for Aldermen, W. E. Swindell, C. L. O'Dom, J. F. Buchman, C. C. Norris, R. L. Jones, Fred W. Ayers, J. J. Berry and E. A. Daniels.

GETS LIFE SAVING MEDAL.

Awarded Boatswain for Courage in Rescuing Drowning Man.

Washington, April 21.—Thomas Olsen, chief boatswain's mate, now on board the U. S. S. Chester, has been awarded by the Secretary of the Treasury a silver life saving medal for gallant conduct exhibited in rescuing a man from drowning in the Mississippi river, near New Orleans, La., February 28, 1911.

Thomas Olsen was born in Norway about 32 years ago. He has been in the service about 12 years.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Haid—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skilfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical Company, of New York, put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent: J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., Front and Grace streets.

UNLIKE ANY OTHER

One secret of Monarch superiority lies in the wonderful responsiveness of its key action. In no other typewriter in the world do the keys so readily yield to the slightest touch of the finger.

That is why the Monarch is easier to operate than any other writing machine.

That is why it wards off fatigue and saves nerve-strain on the part of the stenographer. In consequence, her work is more accurate, greater in quantity than it is possible to obtain with any other writing machine.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

Some men approve of religion on account of other men.

People who come to Wilmington soon learn to make out like it's their native city.

An egotist is a man who thinks too much of himself to admit that anybody else is in it with him.

A socialist wants us to understand that "the world is restless." Nevertheless, keep right on trying to get to the top.

A Sunday School teacher inquired of her class: "What is the chief end of man?" Why-er-it's the end at which his leg can be pulled.

It is impossible for a Spring poet to know when to sing the praises of Spring for ceasing its disagreeable relations with Winter.

Says the Columbia State: "All cultivated Carolinians are expected to call on Columbia this week." This looks like taking advantage of the absence of Governor Blease.

Some people think the way to build a city is to invite others to come and do it for them. The city which gets built that way can be distinguished from any other just as soon as some famous discoverer happens to find it.

The Savannah Morning News observes: "Now a Chicago professor is trying to tell us that oysters spread leprosy." We don't believe anybody ever caught leprosy from oysters, although it seems that oysters do catch fits from a few professors and doctors.

The Chicago Board of Health has ordered the wholesale slaughter of cats because it is satisfied that they carry disease germs in their whiskers. Whether they do or not, the slaughter of cats will mean more muffs for the ladies next Fall.

The Gentlemen from North Carolina will please confine themselves to reciprocity with Canada. Knocking on the side is liable to make us think reciprocity is merely a side issue compared with political prospects in North Carolina. This should be regarded as an injunction.

Judge Kenyon, who was recently elected Senator from Iowa, has the endorsement of President Taft who declares him to be "a man of high ideals." Of course, the President may guess right this time despite the fact that he slipped up on what he thought Senator Aldrich was.

A Mr. Bergfield, of Kansas City, had a rooster stolen from him and had a colored citizen arrested because a pair of rooster feet were found behind the colored man's house. Of course, that's prima facie evidence, so no colored individual could hope to prove an alibi in the face of such suspicious circumstances. Chicken feet found back of a white man's house is only prima facie evidence that he is a plutocrat.

The Bavarian government is standing up for the "liberty" of its beer-drinking people. The tenant of a gigantic beer house has been fined $750 and sent to prison for six weeks, while five of the waiters were given terms of from one to five weeks in jail. The charge against them was defrauding the public by serving short measure in beer and wily and wilfully deceiving bibulous Barvarians by filling "steins" and 'seidels" with so much foam that the beer did not reach the legally stamepd mark indicating the proper measure. Some governments and people are different.

"DEVELOPMENT AHEAD."

Situated at the mouth of the Cape Fear River on a magnificent land-locked harbor, Southport has been without a railroad to develop its splendid opportunity for ocean transportation. Now that a railroad will be completed to Southport within a few months, connecting that place with Wilmington and giving Southport an outlet over the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line, our Southport friends have every reason to feel jubilant and hopeful.

The Southport News sees in the road, "Development Ahead," and in an editorial under that caption our esteemed contemporary rejoices in the declaration that "there is little room now for doubt that this great port is coming into its own." It is quite reasonable to anticipate that the railroad will do much for Southport and Brunswick county, but any development that it will bring about will be shared by Wilmington and eastern North Carolina generally. Speaking of the development anticipated at Southport because it is to have a railroad "before the year is half over," the News says:

"On the bar is thirty-one feet. The harbor is landlocked, safe and commodious. It has good anchorage territory, sufficient to accommodate the entire naval force of the country. It reaches more than forty feet in depth in some parts and has never had a dollar spent on it. Miles of dock room is found here on deep water near the channel.

"The natural growth of foreign commerce has led the demand for a shipping point here, and to this is added the urgent necessity by reason of the prospective business to folow the opening of the Panama cana. No point on the South Atantic coast has a better location for catching this business and transferring it to the interior.

"Southport is as near Cincinnati as is New York. Southport is about the same distance from Panama as are New Oreans and Gaveston. Southport is to the south of the dreaded capes on the coast, and is ony five mies from the sea. Many features point out for her a great future. Give her railroad connection and the fostering had of a little capital, and Southport will offer to the business world a point unequalled on the coast south of Norfolk.

"The railroad being practically assuered, we must now look out for business. Our people must aid the person who wishes to develop our resources, to bring in new enterprises, and to help place Southport to the front. We will be afflicted with investors, who purchase to hold for the rising demand to bring to them rich returns, who will have no purpose to develop. The community will gain little from such exploits. It is to that person who has faith in our town's possibilitie, who casts his lot with us to help construct and to build an enlarged and more useful community to whom we must extend a welcome hand."

It is difficult to foresee just what a railroad will do for Southport, but it largeily depends upon the people of Southport and such capitalists as may see opportunities there. The port advantages are there, but the commerce has to be brought to the port and that requires ample capital to handle such commodities of export and import as this country furnishes or demands. Whether there is to be any great growth of commerce depends upon how much business can be ataracted to Southport by exporters and importers, but now that a railroad is soon to reach deep water at Southport it is certain that the opportunity is there for considerable development.

However, one railroad, nor several railroads, will build up a port, for that depends upon port facilities, capital and the commodities which can be drawn from several tributary States. The principal commodity for export now is cotton, and to prepare for that requires the expenditure of a large amount of capital. Therefore, it depends upon capital whether Southport is to become a cotton port, and also whether it is to become a grain exporting port, or coaling station, or a naval station, all of which are certainly now among the possibilities. Whaever Southport becomes it will cerainly help Wilmington, for the port is one and the same, with Southport at one end and Wilmington at the other. That Southport is bound to grow, we are prepared to be"ve, but that growth will be slow or rapid just as the resources of the territory develop business.

In the meantime, neither Wilmington nor Southport should despise 'investors who purchase to hold for the rising demand." Investors come mighty slowly, but when they show their faith in our towns anywhere in the South they should be cordially welcomed. They become just that many more live units in a town to aid in development, and, as a matter of fact, some of them may do more for our towns that we are doing for them ourselves. We should all welcome the promoters, investors, and hot-air artists generally, for it takes all kinds to make a town.

There certainly is "development ahead" but whether it shall come slowly or steadily depends upon what we are going to do with our acknowledged advantages and possibilities. Railroad and water transportation will not make Wilmington and Southport but they will furnish the means and we can fool our time over them or make the most of them, as the case may be. It is up to us just what we will do with our possibilities, just as it was to the "unfaithful servant" who buried his talent in a napkin and neglected to do business.

UNAPPRECIATED RESOURCES.

How far ahead can we see? Oftentimes we can't look beyond the present, much less look into the future. We fail to see opportunities all around us and certainly we can't work ourselves up to the point of contemplating the possibilities. In Wilmington we used to think our immediate resources consisted of naval stores and timber, little dreaming of the trucking and agricultural possibilities around us.

We almost exhausted our supposed resources before we could see our possibilities, for it was only a few years back when our commercial organizations were gravely declaring Wilmington had no "back country," and that the future of the city depended upon commerce and manufacturing. The passing of naval stores and timber had hardly been on the wane, however, until the possibilities in trucking and agriculture dawned upon us. Within a short while we have seen a million dollar strawberry business grow up around us, while keeping pace with it is a trucking industry that probably amounts to that value or more. The berry and trucking business now furnishes more business to the railroads than ever did naval stores and timber, so we see our possibilities were greater than our supposed resources.

The fact is, we failed to recognize resources when we saw them, and we hardly yet realize the extent of the great agricultural resources lying all around us. Less than a score of years ago, who could foresee the busy scenes in the strawberry region where at all stations there stand trains of refrigerator trains loading with the luscious North Carolina strawberries now being shipped to the Northern States and Canada? Not so many years ago Wilmingtonians would have been skeptical if it had been predicted that solid refrigerator trains would follow one after another, hurrying on "clear the track" schedules for New York and other great cities. The realization is here, however, for this is a daily scene along the Atlantic Coast Line, as long refrigerator trains are being loaded like mad to land their precious contents in New York in eighteen or twenty hours after they are loaded.

Back yonder we didn't "know" our resources and we couldn't see our possibilities, and yet there are just as many more of which we don't even dream. We had better wake up! We are not the only people, however, who didn't know our country, for this from the Savannah Morning News will tell the tale on the Georgians:

"On Sunday last the Morning News published an article of more than usual merit showing the remarkable development of the wiregrass section of this State in the last two decades, and particularly in the last decade. The lands of that section have been brought under cultivation so fast and its towns have sprung into existence so rapidly and had such vigorous and healthy growth that the section has become the subject of widespread interest and the Mecca of thousands of homeseekers and investors. In the article to which we refer it is pointed out that its growth in wealth and population rivals that of the most favored parts of the country. And this growth is a the more remarkable because of the fact that it hasn't been so many years since its lands were thought to be almost valueless for agricultural purposes. It was even said by keen observers that when its naval stores possibilities were exhausted and its timber removed the railroads woud have nothing on which to live. But these observers have lived to see how mistaken was their judgment. The lands have been brought under cultivation as fast as the forests have disappeared and they have proven to be exceedingly productive, so productive, in fact, that the railroads have far more business than when the naval stores and lumber industries were in their prime. It is fast becoming, if it isn't already, the fairest, richest and most populous part of this great State."

Back country? Possibilities? Resources? They lie all around Wilmington simply awaiting recognization and development. It requires three things—live men to see them and rescognize them, capital to bring about their development, and the attraction and settlement of home-seekers and homemakers to do the rest. All around us in eastern North Carolina we have the finest lands and the most ideal climate on the face of the earth, and if we could live long enough we would see this fair land covered with money-making farms, dotted with happy homes, netted with macadam roads, threaded with trolley lines, and teeming with a prosperous population so satisfied that no Utopia and so Golconda would disturb their dreams.

NEW YORK IN DISTRESS.

Pity little old Greater New York! She is suffering from freight descrimination and is crying aloud like a rural hamlet. The New York World tells us that Mayor Gaynor has taken up the cudgels and "has asked Governor Dix to intervene through the Attorney General in the protest of New York's commercial bodies against the railroad freight differential." The World says it is cheating New York, and that great metropolis paper goes on to declare:

"The city is to aid the action. The State should do so. For more than a generation the railroads have charged more to bring freight to New York than to other Atlantic ports. This is cheating. It has been morally wrong from day the pracitce began. It is is not now expressly illegal, what is an Inter-State Commerce act for? If New York does not stand up for New York, who will?"

Of course, the New York people have to get together and pull together just like the people of Wilmington. There are about 5,000,000 of them but if they don't be careful the boodaddle will get the whole bunch.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"South Carolina," says an exchange, "is the only State in the Union that supervises the distribution of corn in the grain." There are several, however, which supervise its distribution in the liquid, while some, notably North Carolina, try to prevent its consumption in that form, but do not succeed.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

When Senator Simmons, of North Carolina asked the President the other day whether or not he would sign the free list bill for the benefit of the farmer and other people who would like to live a little bit cheaper, the President replied, "Try me," which was equivalent, in the North Carolina language, to saying, "I certainly will."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

The man who invented perforated sheets of stamps made a big fortune out of the idea. It is said to have first occurred to a hunting man who wanted to stamp a letter, but could not lay his hands on knife or scissors. He suddenly bethought himself of his spur. Running the towel along, he perforated the edges of the stamp, tore it off, and thus started a revolution.—London Chronicle.

Says the Wilmington Star: "A fashion writer says the night-cap is coming into vogue again. Some people wear night-caps while others swallow them. They are two of the same name but different in kind. It is quite likely that some folks will use both kinds." Not if they swallow enough of them, for they will be unable to get off their own clothes, much less put on anything. One kind of night-cap has caused many a man to go to bed with his boots on.—Greensboro Record.

It took a petty Mexican riot on the border, some of the missiles falling on our side of the line, to draw from Mr. Taft even a hint of his purposes in massing the army in Texas. In his telegram to the governor of Arizona, a Territory long accustomed to violence on the frontier, he revealed a strange contradiction in his official character. To this appointive officer the President was almost garrulous in discussing the propriety and the consequences of intervention in Mexico. To Congress and to the people he has maintained from the first studied reserve and in some respects evasiveness. Yet the rather flippant Presidential discourse for the quieting of Arizona nerves, related to nothing more than disorder at one place on the international boundary. In itself this disturbance never would have been regarded by anybody as justifying intervention.—New York World.

WILMINGTON—BAD AND GOOD.

Editor Star:—Much has been said of late about conditions in Wilmington, and in some quarters this fair city is regarded as the very sink hole of iniquity. Now, there is no man in Wilmington more aware of the deplorable condition of anairs, in some particulars, than I am; nor one who has been more deeply grieved by the notorious evils of his native city, nor one who has more openly opposed them without fear or compromise. I take pride in being known as against them all. But let us not allow to go unchallenged the impression abroad in the State that Wilmington as a whole, is a lawless community, dominated by the worst elements in it. Criticism by high authority has been directed against the whole community because of the verdicts of two juries. A former New Hanover jury brought in a verdict of "guilty" against one of the very men cleared by the last jury criticised. One jury was as representative as the other. Probably a change of solicitors may account for a changed verdict. Untrained juries are easily influenced by astute "criminal" lawyers and every 24 men do not constitute a whole community. As to the violations of the State prohibition law, so long as the Recorder punishes all (white) violators of this law with a simple fine, so long will the violations continue to besmirch the fair name of our city. A few sentences to the roads would quickly remedy this evil.

On the other hand, as a whole, this is an honest community. It is an intelligent community. It is an industrious community. It is a fair-minded and a broad-minded community. And I will put Wilmington against the world for showing kindness to strangers or those in distress. Only last week a native of Holland told me he never imagined such kindness for a bereaved foreigner as had been shown him by "you warm hearted Southern people." I have known scores of similar instances. Again our city is full of earnest, conscientious, Christian people. I defy any city in the State to duplicate even the work done by the Yoke Fellows' Band of the Y. M. C. A. Every week religious meetings are held by this band of volunteer workers in the county jail, the city prison, the county home, on the revenue cutter, at the Union School house on the Castle Hayne road, at Wrightsville Sound, at the convict camp, at the village of Castle Haynes, (nine miles out), at the Catherine Kennedy Home for old ladies, and at the city Y. M. C. A., and they are no perfunctory meetings either, but are conducted by earnest, prepared leaders and are full of interest and the spirit of the Master. No, Wilmington has not gone to the bad—and is not going. We are going to see to that. Wilmington is "all right." If you live here stop knocking Wilmington. Knock the evils. If you don't live here, come down and you will find the finest climate, the largest banks, the solidest business houses, the largest hearted and most generous people, business good, no vacant stores or houses, (but we will build you some if you will locate here), schools unexcelled, numerous churches, eloquent and sound (though not sensational) preachers and plenty of Christian people. True, we have blind tigers, but we are going to run taem out when the new commission government is sworn in; and we have no municipal sewerage system and not many good streest, but we have sold $900,000 worth of bonds to pay for them and we will have both and a new U. S. Custom House soon.

Stop knocking. Go to work for a better and a prettier, a healthier and a wealthier Wilmington.

ROANOKE MAYOR ON TRIAL.

J. H. Cutchin Charged With Malfeasance in Office.

Roanoke, Va., April 21.—The case of Mayor Joel H. Cutchin, charged with malfeasance and misfeasance in office, was called in the corporation court today, Judge Mullen, of Petersburg, presiding. Almost every point of law was decided in favor of the defendant. Trial by jury was granted in view of the objection o fthe commonwealth. The defense won the quashing of 19 charges.

One ground for the argument to quash is tnat the greater portion of the alleged misconduct is said to have transpired during the mayor's previous term of office. When court adjourned Julge Mullen said he would have several rulings to announce tomorrow.

Vienna, April 21.—Emperor Francis Joseph is again having trouble with his throat. He gave a joint audience this morning to the Austrian and Hungarian premier, bu later it was announced that his physicians had advised His Majesty to abandon further audiences for the present. The indisposition is officially stated to be unimportant.

WANT LAND FOR A PARK

Aldermen in Special Meeting—Ask Wilmington Suburban Co., to Donate Land—Resignation of Mr. W. E. Worth.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday for the purpose of considering a communication from Captain Earl I. Brown, of the United States Corps of Engineers, relative to allowing the government to use the dock at foot of Queen street, and also to consider an offer made by the Wilmington Suburban Company some time ago concerning a park near Greenfield pond. All members of the board were present except Alderman Rehder.

Capt. Brown desired to know if there would be any objection on the part of the city to the use and occupancy by the United States of the foot of Queen street, Cape Fear river, for the purpose of erecting thereon a landing stage and store house to be used by the United States in receiving and landing property and employes going to and from the United States yard on the western side of the river.

He stated further that if there was any objection on the part of the city the United States desired to make the necessary preparations for so using the locality at an early date as possible.

After a full discussion, it was decided, upon motion of Alderman West, that action be deferred and request Capt. Brown to give more definite information as to what is desired. The clerk was instructed to communicate the action of the board to Capt. Brown.

A communication was received from Mr. Wm. E. Worth in which he tendered his resignation as a member of the Street Commission, and stated that he hoped it would be accepted. The point was raised that if the resignation would be accepted it would leave the commission without a majority, and upon motion of Alderman West it was decided to defer action until the meeting to be held the first day of May.

Members of the Board of Aldermen have been under the impression that the Wilmington Suburban Company agreed to donate to the city to be used as a park a tract of land consisting of 25 acres and located near Greenfield mill pond, provided the city would have a macadam street built to the southern edge of the city. Third street was completed several months ago, or at least a part of it, the macadam roadway leading out Wright and then Third. Recently this matter was called to the attention of the company named and two communications received concerning the matter were laid before the board. The proposition as stated in one of the letters was, that the city should build a macadam street either out Third or Fifth streets, and that in making an offer nothing else was ever contemplated, and that the road as built was not considered as a compliance with the proposition by any means; and furthermore that it was conditioned upon the city agreeing to expend the sum of $1,000 immediately in improving the grounds, etc., maintain the park in the proper manner and police same, and upon failure to do any of these things the property to revert to the grantors.

Alderman Bonitz told of a conversation with the officials of the company concerning the offer and declared that nothing was said about the expenditure of $1,000 nor policing the park. He stated that he and two other gentlemen went over the property when the offer was made. He was of the opinion that the city had complied with its part of the agreement and the other parties should be willing to make a deed to the city for the 25 acres of land.

The matter was generally discussed and it was finally decided to get Alderman Bonitz to draft a letter embodying what he understood to be the offer of the company, and this letter to be sent to the Wilmington Suburban Company with request for an answer.

City Attorney Herbert McClammy called attention of the board to the fact that property owned by him on Wood street is being damaged by excavations by the city. He proposed that Alderman Bonitz inspect the property and make a report on the damage and that he would be satisfied with any recommendation made. The matter was placed in the hands of Mr. Bonitz.

Unless there should be a called meeting of the Board of Aldermen, the next and last meeting will be held on the first Monday in May—the day of election. At this meeting the business of the city, as far as the aldermen are concerned, will be gotten in readiness to be turned over to the new commissioners.

THE CATHOLIC BAZAAR.

Work of Erecting Booths Has Been Begun—Elaborate Affair.

On the second floor of the Woolvin building, on Princess street, work has begun on the erection of booths for the big Catholic Fair to be given there under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, May 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th, as a benefit for St. Thomas' Cathedral which will be dedicated during the Summer. A number of very handsome booths are being erected and enough is seen already to warrant the prediction that the bazaar is to be a magnificent affair. The booths will add to the general beauty of the scheme and those in charge are confident of a great success. Merchants and business men have been very generous with their donations and the Knights of Columbus feel deeply grateful for their kindness.

Charged With Assault.

John McKoy, colored, was arrested by Constable Savage at an early hour yesterday morning upon a warrant charging him with assault with a deadly weapon upon Randolph Davis. DRAMATIC INTERPRETATION.

Madame Harriet Labadie Appears in "A Doll's House" and "Gossip."

Madame Harriet Labadie, who will make two appearances at Academy of Music next week, giving a dramatic interpretation of "A Doll's House," on April 25th, and "Gossip," on April 27th, under the auspices of the Hospital Circle of King's Daughters, is a woman of many gifts and an artist of no ordinary attainments. Of a recent appearance in Charleston, S. C., the News and Courier says:

"A woman who is able, by an inflection of the voice, by the twitching of an eye, the waving of a hand, to transfer her audience from the lightest of comic situations to intense tragedy; who can hold her audience by these slight variations in the quality of her voice, these scarcely perceptible gestures, in a spell nearly as stron as would be in the ragne of possibility for the most perfect cast of actors that ever staged o drama; this is Madame Harriet Labadie, who presented Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" at the Freundschafts Band Hall last night, under the auspices of the City Federation of Women's Clubs.

"Mme. Labadie did not have a large audience. It was not to be expected. Never, during her tours, has she read to large audiences. In the nature of things, the audience which attends a performance of this kind must be select. To appreciate entertainment of this kind, entertainment which is almost unique in its nature, requires intelligence of a somewhat rare quality. There is nothing in the whole of Mme. Labadie's presentation which can possibly mean anything to the eye—the physical eye. It is an appeal to the mind, to that eye which can see things wholly invisible to the physical vision.

"More than that, this recital is one which exhausts every ounce of energy in the hearer. Through four acts, with scarcely more than one minute's rest after each, the audience is in a condition of mental excitement, which can have no other eect but an exhausting one. It is not a 'recital, not merely the reading of a play, but an 'interpretation — something in which it is necessary that the audience join to appreciate it.

"The performance was without precedent in this city. It was new to those in the audience and it was, therefore, necessary that they adapt themselves to it. The audience was thoroughly appreciative and there is little doubt that a larger attendance will greet Mme. Labadie at her next recital, that of the Spanish play, 'Gossip," which will be given at the Freundschafts Bund Hall, Thursday night."

MAY GO TO COUNTRY FARM.

Woman Fined by Recorder for Shooting Her Sister.

In the Recorder's Court yesterday Fannie Brown, a negress, who shot her sister on the 6th of this month and whose trial had to be continued until the wounded woman was able to be in court, was tried yesterday, the charge being assault with a deadly weapon. The evidence showed that the Brown woman entered the house of her sister, Rebecca Brown, and shot her in the shoulder.

County Attorney Marsden Bellamy prosecuted and he asked that he woman be severely punished as it was an unprovoked assault and appeared to have been done in most malicious manner. The defendant was represented by Messrs. Kellum & Loughlin and L. Clayton Grant and they urged the court to be lenient as the sisters appeared to have reconciled their differences. The Recorder placed a fine of $25 and the cost on the woman. Yesterday afternoon the fine had not been paid and it was stated that if the amount of the fine was not paid she would be sent to the county farm for three months.

Ed. Austin, a negro drayman employed by the Wilmington Furniture Co., was found not guilty of fast driving. He was indicted for fast driving around the corner of Front and Market streets. He showed that he horse had become frightened a few minutes before and was almost unmanageable.

ROUNDING UP THE VOTES.

Number of Registrations Yesterday—Polls Close at 9 Tonight.

Aroused to activity by the candidates ofr commissioners and their friends, quite a number of people registered yesterday and it is expected that today's registration will be large compared to what it has been during the week. The polls will be open until 9 o'clock tonight.

Total registration for the primary was 2,525 and between 300 and 400 of these votes were not cast in the primary. It is estimated that in the city are at least 3,000 voters and this is one thing that leads to the belief that the candidates will exert great effort to get these 400 or 500 unregistered men to the polls. If the registration all over the city was in proportion to that in the downtown wards more than 100 were registered yesterday.

The race has not warmed up thus far as much as expected but the opinion prevails that things will be pretty hot by the latter part of next week.

CITY HELD NOT ALONE LIABLE

Supreme Court Holds if Negligence in Gregg Case, Was Primary as to Private Owner and City Secondary.

Under the ruling of the Supreme Court in the case of Gregg against the City of Wilmington, in which a new trial was granted this week, Mr. James F. Woolvin becomes a party defendant, it being held that it was error to set aside the answer as to negligence as to Mr. Woolvin and allow the verdict against the city to stand.

This suit, it will be recalled, was an action for damages growing out of the death of Mr. E. M. Gregg, who was killed on Princess street in front of what was known as the old court house by a pile of bricks falling upon him. The accident occurred during March, 1909. The brick had been piled on the sidewalk and were supported by upright pieces on the sides.

At one end of the pile had been placed the massive framework of the door of the old court house and Mr. Gregg was standing by this talking to a friend when the brick suddenly gave way causing the framing to fall and strike Mr. Gregg on the head. The blow caused instant death.

The case was tried last Summer before Judge Cook and the jury found that Mr. Woolvin was not negligent but gave a verdict for $7,000 against the city. From this verdict an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. Yesterday's News and Observer gives a digse of the opinion as follows:

"Judge Walker states that it was error for the trial judge to set aside the answer of negligence as to Woolvin and give judgment against the city. 'If Woolvin is not negligent, then the city is free from blame, for it is not alleged, nor it it suggested, that intestate would have been killed or injured in any way if the bricks had been properly stacked and secured.' In order to charge the city with negligence, the jury must find not only that the bricks were negligently piled by Woolvin, but that the city, with actual constructive knowledge of their dangerous condition, permitted them to remain.

"The negligence, if there was any, was primary with Woolvin and secondary with the city. If the bricks were properly stacked by Woolvin and there was no negligence by Woolvin, the permission by the city for the brick to be stacked in the street was no negligence. If there was negligence by both parties a judgment may be recovered against the city which in turn may sue Woolvin and recover for his primary negligence. The verdict of the jury that the city was negligent and that Woolvin was not negligent is inconsistent and was error for the trial judge to give judgment againts the city and set aside the answer as to negligence of Woolvin. Judge Walker writes an able opinion as to the relative liability of municipalities and persons permitted to use its streets, for injuries resulting thereby to third persons. A new trial is granted in this case."

TODAY IS THE LAST CALL.

Option on "The Chocolate Soldier" Date Up Tonight.

Whether or not Wilmington is to get one of the few engagements, "The Chocolate Soldier," the biggest and most glittering comic opera success in a decade, will play in the South, will be determined today. The option time on a date for this giant and superb attraction expires this evening. By then answer must be made by the management of the Academy of Music as to whether or not the guarantee demanded will be given. It is with a desire to feel half way safe in making this guarantee that the management has the present listers at work. The effort is to secure enough subscribers to justify the Wilmington management in taking the big risk, because it is a big risk to give an attraction a positive monetary guarantee. Yet that is what "The Chocolate Soldier" requires, and for obvious reasons. The company is a tremendously expensive one, numbering over four score people and travels on its own special train, and as the demand for engagements is great why the company feels that it has a right to ask for a guarantee. Hence, the request here, and the present vigorous work being done. The listers will finish up their work today, and while the list yesterday showed fine success, under the circumstances, yet more names are needed to reach the goal. So if a lister does not see you today, or has not already seen you, drop around to Plummer's and place your name on the list to be found there.

GOOD TRIP FROM BARBADOS.

Schooner With Molasses Made the Passage in Fourteen Days.

Making the passage from Barbados to this port in 14 days, which is an exceptionally quick voyage, the schooner Benefit, which arrived at Southport Thursday, was towed to the dock of the C. C. Covington Co., yesterday, where she will discharge her cargo of molasses. The distance from Barbados to this port is some 1,700 miles and the captain stated that the vessel had fair winds all the way. The schooner was loaded at Bridgeport and has a cargo of 1,203 tierces of extra fine molasses.

PAY ROLL OF OVER $100,000

What Wilmington Pays Out During Year in Salaries—Largest Amount for Police Force. Other Departments.

The change of city government which will take place in a very short time has caused a great deal of discussion relative to the city's expenditures and the possibilities for reform. Wilmington has an income from all sources of approximately $225,000 per year and it has been right around this figure for several years past.

When the present Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance go out of power there will be a balance in the treasury but it will be very small. A large portion of the income of this city is expended for salaries and in paying laborers, as shown by the books of the city. The total amount paid out for these items, and the most of it goes for salaries, the greater portion to the police and fire departments, is approximately $110,000. That is, the city's pay roll amounts to this figure during the course of a year.

The $110,000 is divided up as follows: Salaries under the head of general expense account, and this includes the principal offices, such as city clerk and treasurer, etc., $9,100; police force, $30,562; laborers employed in street cleaning and repairing department, $18,134; firemen, $27,800; public buildings, janitor, $745; sanitary department for officers, $3,840; and ditchers, $1,950; clerk at market house $720; salaries to librarians, $1,000; legal expenses, $2,500; salaries of officers, engineers, etc., of street commission, $5,000; salaries to officers and employes in water and sewerage department, about $7,500.

The above figures with the exception of the last three items, were taken from the estimates for the year under the different departments.

Those who did register for the primary last Tuesday will not have to register for the election May 1st, but those who did not register for the primary may now register and vote in the general election. Every citizen who has not registered thus far is urged to go to the polls today betwetn the hours of 9 A. M. and 9 P. M. and register for the election. The success of the commission plan of government depends upon the participation of every citizen and a very large vote is hoped for on May 1st. Yesterday he was too unwell to leave his room at the Colonial Inn but he notified the attorneys that they could come to his room if they had any orders or judgments to be signed.

IRON IN THE BLOOD.

When it is insufficient or lacking, there is a dearth of red blood corpuscles, which causes anaemia and a run-down condition of the entire system, with consequent bodily weakness.

In order to restore the blood to a healthy condition, iron must be supplied in an easily assimilated form. We guarantee this may be done by Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, made without oil.

This combination of two world-famed tonics, restores to the blood the elements lacking to make rich, red blood, which imparts strength and vitality to every organ in the body.

J. Edmund Miller, of New Haven, Conn., says their little girl had been frail and sickly ever since her birth. Vinol was recommended and they tried it, and immediately noticed an improvement in her condition. They continued its use and it built her up, until they cannot recommend it too highly to build up a weakened system." Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

DELGADO COTTON MILLS.

Annual Meeting of Stockholders and Directors Held on Wednesday.

The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Delgado Cotton Mills was held on Wednesday of this week. The annual reports of President E. C. Holt, Vice President Robert R. Bellamy and Secretary and Treasurer J. Walter Williamson, showed the mill to be in very satisfactory condition and past year's business to have been very satisfactory. The usual dividend was declared and ordered paid.

That the Delgado mill is still being operated upon a satisfactory basis is a source of gratification to the entire community. It is one of New Hanover's most valued manufacturing enterprises and has been placed upon a solid, substantial basis under the greatest handicap. It is a valuable feeder for the retail trade of Wilmington and as such should be appreciated by the business men of the city.

Run Over by Automobile.

Friends of Capt. Joe Everett, night watchman at the Kidder Lumber Company, will regret to know that he was painfully but not seriously injured by being run over by an automobile being driven by Dr. Wright Hall while on his way to work about 6 o'clock yesterday evening at Sixth and Castle street. It appears that no one was to blame for the accident which was unavoidable. Capt. Everett suffered a fracture of the fore part of the leg near the calf and was bruised and shaken up to some extent. He was taken to his home on Castle street where Dr. Frank H. Russell attended him.

COTTON MILL FAILURES.

Bankruptcy Petitions Filed Against Mills at Griffin, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga., April 21.—Involuntary petitions in bankruptcy have been filed in the United States court here against three cotton mills at Griffin, Ga., and two individuals connected with one of the corporations.

The mills involved are the Spalding Cotton Mills, the Central Cotton Mills and the Boyd-Hengham Manufacturing Company, while the individuals are J. J. Mangham and J. W. Mangham, of the latter concern. The high price of cotton and low prices for cotton goods is given as the cause for the failures. Principal creditors involved, it is said, are making efforts to keep the cotton mills out of the hands of receivers.

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL PLAY BY MISS BURKHEIMER.

The Star has with the compliments of Miss Bessie Burkheimer, the pretty and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Burkheimer, formerly of this city, a prospectus of her new play, "The Girl Who Dared," a bright musical comedy, which has just been presented two evenings in Charlotte with the highest success. The play is composed and arranged by Miss Burkheimer and is staged under her direction and management. It has clever lines, amusing situations, an entertaining plot; scintillating with artistic dances and bright music. Of the production in Charlotte on Thursday evening of this week, the News of yesterday said:

"The production was replete with new and catchy songs, bright lines and clever dances. Several new characters were seen in the cast, which was an excellent one throughout. Miss Bessie Burkheimer, the authoress, again took the part of Virginia Neville, 'The Girl,' and was fully up to the standard set by herself at the previous presentation. Her first appearance on the stage was the signal for warm applause. Mr. Cyril Baxtresser, as Dick Brown of the New York Herland, made a distinct and instantaneous hit with the audience both in the lines assigned to him and the songs he sang. One of his best songs was 'Day Dreams Bring Visions of Bliss,' which gave opportunity for showing the real excellence of his voice. Another excellent number was 'Let's Make Love Among the Roses,' sung by Mr. Baxtresser and Miss Bessie Burkheimer, their voices blending in most agreeable manner and their interpretation of the song calling forth applause.

"'The Girl Who Dared,' has proved itself a production of real worth and the young authoress is to be congratulated on its second successful appeal to a Charlotte audience, which showed by its behavior, both on first and second presentation, both on first getting its money's worth. The cast is excellent and the songs the very latest hits. It is bound to draw a good audience wherever it is presented.

"There is a probability that it will be produced at Shelby at an early date, several requests having been made to Miss Burkheimer to present it there as well as at other places."

TO PALE THIN PEOPLE.

Druggist J. Hicks Bunting Offers to Pay for Samose if It Does Not Make Thin People Fat.

Pale, thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no good.

Samose, the remarkable flesh forming food, should be used by all who are pale, weak and thin. It mingles with the food and aids assimilation, so that when taken for a short time, nature will soon assert her normal powers, and the food that is eaten will give strength and good flesh.

The woman who longs for rosy cheeks and the plumpness of beauty should use Samose. The man who wants to be strong and well and gain health and good flesh will find his desires acomplished by Samose.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samose that Druggist J. Hicks Bunting is willing to pay for the treatment if it does not give the desired results. He makes this offer generally and wants all who are thin, weak and out of health to get a box of Samose from him on those terms.

CROPS IN THE STATE.

Conflicting Reports as to Damage—Other Raleigh News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 21.—Subsequent reports from fruit growing sections of the State to the State Department of Agriculture are confirming the estimate made two weeks ago that while the peach crop on the extre eastern section of the State is about completely killed, there is still a half crop or more in the Southern Pines section and in the Piedmont, or central belt and prospects for a good yield further west. The apple crop in the Piedmont section has been much more seriously injured, that in the great apple belt of the mountain region of the State. Indeed, it is estimated that the apple crop in the western part of the State will be a full one if there is no set-back from now on.

The reports from the strawberry growing territory of Eastern Carolina are that growth is being much retarded by the cold nights and the right unfavorable season in vogue the past two weeks.

The farmers hereabouts are complaining greatly about unfavorable weather conditions for the seeding of cotton and are reporting this work very backward. Hereabouts the effort is always to plant the crop as soon after April 1st as possible. Now the month is far spent and a very large part of the crop is still to be planted. The persistent continuance of the cold nights and frequent rain combine to retard the preparations of the land for the seed and the development of the seed after planting. This condition is said to exist throughout the cotton belt in this State.

Governor Kitchin received today and accepted the resignation of A. C. Stroup, as member of the lower House of the General Assembly for Gaston county. His resignation is on account of being appointed county tax assessor for Gaston by the Corporation Commission as State tax commission.

Governor Kitchin was at Alliance, Pamlico county, today to deliver an address in connection with the school closing there.

The first week is to be devoted to the trial of criminal cases and the famous suit of Ware-Kramer Tobacco Co., vs. the American Tobacco Co., for $1,500,000 damages for trust methods of breaking up the business of the plaintiff is to be called with prospect that this may require a month or longer and will be one of the biggest legal fights that has been pulled off in Raleigh in a great while.

"Little Princess" at Matinee.

The presentation of "The Little Princess" Thursday night was such a wonderful success and the audience so delighted that the attraction was witnessed by a larger crowd last night than at the first performance, something extremely unusual. While those participating acted their parts like veterans, the performance last night was presented even better than on the previous night. The play has proven such a success that it has been decided to give a matinee this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Price of admission for adults will be fifty cents and children 25 cents.

Grand Theatre

This place of comfort and amusement is the talk of the town. It's on the minds and lips of every child, woman and man, and why? First, its ventilation and comfort; second, its pictures are instructive and moral; third, its siner has no equal in the South; fourth, its suberb orchestra, one that will surpass many heard in larger cities. The music feature of the entertainment alone is a treat at the small prices, 5 and 10 cents. This week has been one rand success and the crowds we are handling seem to be satisfied and enjoy every moment of their visit. Where can you find another place that gives as much for the price? The manaement is at all times hard at work getting the best pictures that money can afford. Today we will again present to you three reels right off the camera. Mr. Baldwin will sing a beautiful ballad entitled, "In the Garden of My Heart." This song is beautifully illustrated. Think it over and come and forget your troubles.

Joyland.

The management of Joyland always provide something out of the ordinary for the Saturday crowds, and today will be no exception. The feature film for today will be "Come Back to Me," a feature of the Powers Film Company, which was made on the famous "Lake Kilkenny," and is a beautiful scenic production. Mr. Reilly will have a new song that will please and the illustrations are simply grand.

Crystal Palace.

"Irish Hearts," "Brother's Feud" and two of the most interesting pictures from a photographic as well as comic view, "What W... It Be," and "Growing Old," will be added to the vaudeville programme at the Palace today. The first two subjects are both good dramas; the Irish reel, a beautiful story, with a clever plot interwoven, and the other an everyday story of American life, well treated, the later two subjects are trick films full of lively and laughable actions. The Misses Meeker, and the Claywood Sisters both present varied acts, neat, attractive and entertaining. Matinees at 3:30 and 4:30 today, and the theatre opening at 7:30 in the evening, showing continuous till 11. Four acts are announced for the coming week.

At the Bijou.

The Bijou never tires of reaching out for greater and more novel features in order to furnish pleasure to its hundreds and hundreds of Wilmington patrons, but at the same time the diminutive price is never advanced. Yesterday, as an additional attraction to its usual big bill, it presented a decidedly exceptional film. Moving pictures of the sensational 110-foot high diving act by Harry Six was presented. This film was taken on the celebrated ostrich farm at Jacksonville, Fla., and gave a thrilling view of Mr. Six performing his daring feat, his preparations, etc. An exceptional feature, too, was that Mr. Six was in the Bijou audience yesterday to witness the film. Mr. Six and his wife have been in the city for the past hree days, stopuin over here on their way north, to visit their friends, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Wells. They leave by the Clyde Line for Gotham today. Today promises to be a big Saturday. The Bijou promises to present one of the best bills (everything new) it has yet offered the public. There will also be a new song by Mr. Frank Banks and fine new selections by the orchestral electric piano.

ACKISS CLAIMS NOMINATION.

Intimation of Irregularity in Virginia Election Yesterday.

Norfolk, Va., April 21.—That ex-Judge A. J. Ackiss was re-nominated for commonwealth's attorney of Princess Anne county, by two majority over E. J. Smith in yesterday's Democratic primary for county offices, is shown by the face of the returns following correction of an irregularity from one precinct, where it was shown six more ballots were in the box than names appeared on the poll books. When a man was blind-folded he drew out of the box five Ackiss ballots and only one for Smith. There is demand for a re-count and the matter may be thrown into the general election.

Only one incumbent county officer other than ex Judge Ackiss was re-nominated. This one was his brother, Sheriff Paul W. Ackiss, whom ex-Judge Ackiss appointed to office originally during his one month's tnure on the bench when the old county court went out of existence.

A CARD.

Mr. Editor:—I desire to thank my friends through columns of your paper for the loyal support accorded me in the primary on Tuesday last, and assure them that if elected as councilman from the Fourth Ward at the coming election, to give, at all times, my best efforts in the upbuilding of this community. Without declaring a platform, I shall pursue such a course as will rebound to the best interest of Wilmington, and will at all times stand for the enforcement of law and the maintenance of order.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Business Continue to Move Slowly—Uncertainty as to Values.

New York, April 21.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Business continues to move slowly in volume, though large, being much below producing capacity and displaying a lack of interest and vigor. The accummulating deposits and reserves of the banks are one of the results of the general trade recession, but they impart strength to the banks and will enable them readily to finance the forward movement of enterprise whenever it sets in. Dullness in pig iron has become more pronounced and production is on a reduced scale with the leading interest having only about 70 per cent. of the furnace capacity active. Greater quietness is also apparent in the finished material markets and some curtailment of mill operations is reported.

In the dry goods market there has been no special backward movement and some merchants believe the bottom has been touched on prices for cotton goods and other lines. Orders placed by jobbers are small as a rule, but indicate a healthy condition of stocks from the sellers view point. There is some uncertainty as to future values, and most of the business now being done is for May and June delivery, but this is in part due to the unwillingness of mills to make long contracts at present prices. At the same time the volume of production is being generally curtailed and limited to orders, so that manufacturing centers are still giving evidence of depression.

A fair export trade in cotton goods was done last week. Gradual improvement is noted in foot wear.

AFTER COAL LAND FACTS.

Resolution Put Through Senate By LaFollette Yesterday.

Washington, April 20.—Without explanation or opposition, Senator LaFollette put through a resolution in the Senate today calling upon the Secretary of the Interior to furnish all the facts connected with coal entries made upon lands withdrawn from the Chugach National Forest Reserve in Alaska and later restored to the public domain under order of President Taft. The resolution also calls for detailed information as to what assignments if any have been made of such claims and to whom.

There is nothing in the resolution to indicate its exact purport, but it was stated that Senator LaFollette has in view an inquiry to ascertain whether or not any favoritism has been shown to the Guggenheim interests and whether a monopoly of water front rights available for railroad termnilas has been allowed to grow up.

ROYAL Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is more economical at its price than any other leavening agent, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food. In England, France, Germany and some sections of the United States their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a dangerous mineral acid, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

ATTACKS FRENCH NOVELS.

Demoralizing Habit Among English and American Women.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 20.—One influential and demoralizing habit among the women of England and America that must be attacked is the reading of novels translated from French into English, declared Mrs. J. H. Tritton, of London, Eng., president of the World's Young Women's Christian Association to the convention of the American Association today.

Both East and West have found that the time for woman's advancement is at hand, continued Mrs. Tritton, but all countries are unprepared for it. China, Japan, India, Russia and Turkey are begging us for Y. W. C. A. secretaries, and for help, and yet there is no lack of opportunities for our work at home, in England and America.

COTTON MARKET LESS ACTIVE

Fluctuations Were Rather More Irregular—Closed Eight Points Higher to One Point Lower—Market Features Yesterday.

New York, April 21.—The cotton market was less active today and fluctuations were rather more irregular, but old crop positions made new high records for the movement and the close was steady, net eight points higher to one point lower.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1@3 points, in response to better Liverpool cables than expected, the continued big Liverpool spot sales and further reports of an active trade in Lancashire. There was no aggressive buying early, and with the weather better in the South there was considerable realizing as well as some selling for a reaction, but prices eased off only slightly before supporting orders appeared around the ring and the highest levels for the day were reported in the late trading, when May sold at 14.88 and July at 14.93, or 7 to 8 points net higher. The late buying was encouraged by reports of very firm Southern spot markets, and bullish weekend figures, for while the into-sight movement was a little heavier than the previous week, spinners' takings exceeded expectations and a loss of 138,000 bales was shown in the world's visible supply of American cotton for the week, comparing with a loss of only 91,000 bales for the same week last year.

The early weather map showed very little precipitation in the South and the forecast was for generally fair weather, but the more favorable conditions in this respect were reflected in a quiet and relatively easy market for new crop deliveries rather than in any real weakness or aggressive selling. Closing prices were at practically the best point of the day on the old crop, which was 5 to 8 points net higher. Fair sales were reported in several of the Southern markets at advanced prices. Receipts, 9,673 against 4,269 last week and 14,115 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 4,066, against 1,546 last year. Cotton spot closed quiet, 5 points higher; middling uplands, 15.00; middling gulf, 15.25; no sales.

Futures opened and closed steady.

TENSION IN STOCKS RELIEVED

With Passing of So-Called Missouri Pacific Affair—Market Was Heavy Throughout Day—Some Uneasiness.

New York, April 21.—The tension of the last few days in Wall Street was relieved today with the passing of the so-called Missouri Pacific affair, from the place of the predominant interest, which it has occupied much of the week. The street seems to have arrived at the conclusion that the Gould interests have made definite and favorable financial arrangements and that the Rockefeller influence in the Gould properties as a whole has been materially strengthened.

The stock market was heavy, in spite of the relief which was felt over the settlement of Missouri Pacific's affairs, uneasiness as to which largely responsible for the unsettled conditions of previous days. Missouri Pacific barely moved through the day, and the market as a whole was dull and uninteresting, with business on a much smaller volume than on the three previous days. The heavy tone which characterized trading seemed to be due to no small extent to the continued unfavorable tenor of advices of industrial conditions. Reports as to the outlook for the steel and iron trade were especially depressing. News from the Southern iron fields stated that a large number of blast furnaces had been closed and that work had been stopped on the construction of a huge wire mill, which was being erected in Alabama. Liquidation in the fertilizer stocks continued today with especial weakness in American cotton oil, concerning which it is now said that a dividend suspension, or reduction may be decided upon. United States Steel was under pressure and closed at about the low point of the day. In spite of the heavy undertone, net losses on the day were slight, largely because short covering prevented any extensive recessions. The ease of money, which continues at this and other large centers of the country, has induced banks to employ their idle funds in the purchase of bonds and short term notes, a situation which is favorable to further financing, which it is understood the railroads have in prospect.

The bond market was steady. Total sales, par value, $1,504,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 161,100 shares.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Brighter State of Trade in England Caused Prices to Advance—Wall Street Arrayed on the Bull Side Yesterday.

New York, April 21.—Prices of cotton have advanced, partly on account of the brighter state of trade in England. Liverpool spot sales have reached a large aggregate and Manchester has reported an excellent sale for both cloths and yarns. Indeed, the outlook for Lancashire's trade has so perceptibly improved that its spinners seem more than ready to buy the actual cotton freely, with the view of laying in a good reserve supply. Moreover there are reports of too much rains in the Eastern and Central sections of the belt.

The government weather report stated in substance that the recent rainfall had been above the normal over considerable of the great region of the South. Some replanting has been found necessary. At times, too, the weather has been unusually cold. The spot markets have been strong. Small receipts both at the ports and the interior towns have continued to attract attention, and have with the outflow of cotton to Europe pointed to bullish week-end statistics. There are reports of a somewhat better state of things in some quarters of the cotton goods trade. It is not claimed that there is any marked improvement, but the expansion of business in Lancashire, it is argued, must sooner or later extend to the United States. Wall Street interests are arrayed on the bull side, and if the May option seems to many a thing of the past the spurt in July and August, particularly in August, suggests the possibility of interesting times ahead in those options. The acreage planted is probably the largest on record. Meantime, however, the market continues to be so clearly of a manipulated character that many refuse to trade in the old crop months, which are so obviously under the thumb of certain capitalists in the financial district. Trade in cotton goods as a rule is bad, partly owing to the cold, backward spring over most of the United States. Curtailment of production is still a noticeable feature. American spinners appear to be buying the raw cotton on a very small scale. They are selling many if not most goods at a loss, and are thoroughly disgusted with the situation, seeing no immediate prospect of an improvement. Most of the corp reports are favorable. In Texas and Oklahoma, the weather has now become warm and dry. Good stand sare already reported in not a few sections, and chopping out has begun in some localities. With anything like favorable weather, it is regarded as a foregone conclusion that the next crop will be of historic size. Meantime, however, Liverpool and Manchester are active and strong and local bears have become discouraged, with feeling for the top only to be pounded up by a resolute bull clique in Wall Street ious recent instructions to the commanding officers of the Department of Texas, Colorado and California, the three military divisions covering the entire Southern border. These orders forbid any American soldier crossing the international border and provide for the disarming and holding until further orders of all combatants crossing into the United States.

In view of the reports that some citizens of El Paso, Texas, might adopt armed retaliatory measures in case any American on this side were injured by an attack on Juarez, the Department also instructed Colonel Steever, commanding the troops at El Paso, to take necessary steps to prevent any such action and to this end hold such troops as you have available ready to meet any emergency."

Department Gratified.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—"The Department is very much gratified at this gracious act on the part of the Mexican government as a result of the earnest representations which the Secretary of State has made in this case," read a statement the Senate Department issued today on the action of Preident Diaz in ordering the release of Blattand Converse.

Madero's Camp Near El Paso, Tex., April 21.—Francisco I. Madero, Sr., and his party of peace emissaries arrived tonight after one week on the heels of the rebel leader. General Madero stated to newspaper men that no attack on Juarez would be made within the next 24 hours.

Mexico City, April 21.—Two old men, one the president of Mexico and the other an attorney of Los Angeles, and the father of a boy confined in a Mexican prison, today chatted in neighborly fashion for 15 minutes over a subject that has brought into action all the machinery of two State Departments. At the conclusion the father in view of the objection of the comset free.

The attorney was C. H. Converse, father of Lawrence Converse, who has been in jail for some months at Juarez on a charge of having participated in the Mexican revolution as a filibuster. The father came to Mexico not as an attorney to argue the case, but as a father seeking to protect his boy. When he left the office of the President he knew that not only would his son be released, but that Edward M. Blatt, of the other young man who has been held on the same charge, would be freed. The two boys will be taken by Converse to Los Angeles.

Gen. Diaz promised Converse that will send to him tomorrow a letter addressed to the authorities at Juarez instructing them to release the two boys to Converse.

The father arrived here last night and today, accompanied by an attache of the embassy, who acted only as an interpreter, called on the President.

Relating the story of the conference, Converse said:

"It was simply the case of two old men talking over the action of a son who had gotten into trouble.

"I was not asked to give any reasons why my boy should be released and I didn't."

President Diaz asked Mr. Converse how old his boy was.

"He is just 21." replied the father.

"Has the boy a mother?" asked the President.

"Yes."

"Would you be willing to take the boy back home with you and look after him and see that he remains away from Mexico?"

The father assured him that he would be glad to do so.

"Then," said the President, "I will have him released. You had better take him immediately to his mother, for she, I presume, is worried."

As a result, the President said he would release Blatt if Converse would agree to assume responsibility for him with reference to his again getting into trouble with Mexican authorities.

Hopeful for Armistice.

Washington, April 21.—The Mexican revolutionists may yet find it unnecessary to attack Juarez and an armistice within a few days between the Federal and insurgent forces is still a strong probability. This was the inference drawn from tonight's activities of Dr. Vasquez Gomez, head of the Confidential Agency of the Mexican revolutionists here.

Dr. Gomez sent several telegrams tonight to Mexico, but the only information as to their contents was given in a statement which he issued.

"It is impossible for me," said Dr. Gomez, "to reveal the nature of negotiations in which I am tonight engaged. All I can say is that within a few days I may be able to communicate something of great interest to the Mexican people. It is absolutely essential, however, that the neotiations be kept secret as we are dealing with some delicate points."

Dr. Gomez gave the impression that he had to et to work on some new plans and that an adjustment of the situation satisfactory to General Francisco I. Madero, Jr., may yet be eected. He was optimistic and it is believed that he had received some assurance or promises which caused him to advise the rebel leaders in the field to be patient.

Attack Again Deferred.

Madero's Camp Near El Paso, Tex., April 21.—Simultaneously with the arrival in camp tonight of Francisco Madero, Sr., and his peace missionaries, general Madero said that he would make no attack on Juarez for another 24 hours.

This decision was due partly to the arrival of his father as advance agent of the dove of peace, but principally to a code telegram from Dr. Vasquez Gomez at Washington insisting that an attack on Juarez at this time would be unwise, and probably would be the signal for American intervention.

Dr. Gomez insisted that public sentiment at this time was in favor of ending the strife and the certain heavy loss in an attack on Juarez would turn the tide of moral support away from the rebellion.

The leader of the revolt was plainly perturbed at the situation in which he found himself.

Not an attack would make him a greater laughing stock than was Orizco who marched to the city gates several weeks ago only to retreat without firing an offensive shot. Incidentally, one of his principal leaders has told him that if the present campaign ends in a fiasco he will leave the general's forces and operate independently.

On the other hand Diaz has made a great concession in changing his cabinet ministers and granting political reforms, and Washington and his own family urged Madero to desist.

The peace emissaries arrived at 9 o'clock tonight, the party consisting of Francisco Madero, Sr., his brother Ernesto, his son Alfonso, Rafael L. Hernandez and Frederico Moyo, a merchant of Chihuahua, who joined the mission at that city.

BEAUFORT WATERWAY.

What Norfolk Landmark Has to Say About Big Project.

(Norfolk Landmark.)

It does not seem that it will be long before the proposed inter-costal waterway from Beaufort, N. C., to Boston is completed. Most, if not quite all, of the route has been surveyed by the Federal Government, and, as has been recently reported, a portion of it north of Beaufort has been opened to a moderate depth. Results of surveys along the route are said to be unexpectedly gratifying.

While Congress has not committed itself to the general proposition to the extent of making an appropriation for actual work upon it, those Congressmen and others behind the enterprise are confident that an appropriation will shortly be made, perhaps before the expiration of the Sixty-Second Congress. The appropriation will be made if Representative John H. Small, of North Carolina, and Representative J. Hampton Moore, of Pennsylvania, are allowed to have their say about it. Governor Woodrow Wilson and the New Jersey Legislature have just done something which should tend to encourage action on the part of the Federal Government. The Legislators passed a ship canal bill which the Governor promptly signed and made law. The State wants the intercostal built, at least across its territory, from the Delaware river to New York bay, and the canal bill carries an appropriation of $500,000 to be used in the purchase of a right of way as soon as the United States Government signifies that it is ready to go ahead with the work of construction. New Jersey is convinced that the canal would be of great commercial value, and demonstrates its conviction in no uncertain way.

The New Jersey link would be the longest in the canal and the most costly to build, but there are no engineering difficulties in the way of it that cannot be easily overcome. A private corporation is now cutting a canal across Cape Cod, and when that has been opened the route will be completed between New York and Boston. A small canal must be made larger to complete the route between the Delaware river and the Chesapeake, while south of Norfolk there are other small canals and sound waters to deepen. It will be a great day for the shipping and commerce when the canal is finally opened. Norfolk would reap a full share of its advantages.

OUT FOR A GOOD TIME.

Western Mining Man Throws Away Money on Broadway.

New York, April 21.—Throwing dimes, quarters and bills to the winds of Broadway, A. P. Ennis, who, saying he is a mining man, created so much excitement in the theatre district tonight that a near-riot resulted, among the thousand youngsters who collected to gather in the coins. Ennis does not know exactly what he threw away, but he does know that he stopped the excitement when his pocket was picked of a $100 bill.

Ennis explained that he started out to have a "good time." The police dispersed the crowd and cautioned Ennis not to be so liberal, hereafter, but made no arrests.

SENATORS HAVE FIGHT.

Funk and Jones Have Clash During Caucus at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., April 21.—With a shout, "You're a liar," Senator Funk, of Bloomington, struck Senator Jones, of Chicago, on the jaw during a Republican caucus yesterday.

Other Senators mixed in while Jones pulled off his glasses and made frantic efforts to strike back. Order was restored.

The row was started by a discussion of the subject of the initiative and referendum.

Senator Jones charged Funk with attempting to smother the initiative and referendum and Funk replied by his attack.

BANISHING MOSQUITOES.

(Charlotte Observer.)

We have heretofore referred to the anti-mosquito campaign which is being conducted under the auspices of the Wilmington city authorities and with the aid of a municipal appropriation. As the work progresses it is instructive to note just how those in charge are setting about their task. The first step is to do away with pools of standing water, little and big, and this means not a little ditching and considerable laying of pipe. Although this requires much work, the beneficial results will be permanent and the Wilmington workers consider it well worth their while. There are certain spots, however, which from topographical or other reasons cannot be thoroughly drained at this time. Upon these oil will be placed in sufficient quantities to obviate danger for the present season. This oiling, however, is distinctly recognized as merely a temporary protection. The process has to be repeated from time to time and the enemies of the Wilmington mosquito are resorting to it only in cases of necessity and then with a view to the substitution of thorough drainage at a later time.

The city authorities are showing excellent judgment in another phase of the campaign. They can any beyond question will to all intents and purposes, make Wilmington mosquitoless, but to maintain such a blissful state will require the hearty although not necessarily strenuous co-operation of the individual householders. The Wilmington Star, which is keeping in close touch with the situation, foresees a time when "it will be possible to say that a man is responsible for his own mosquities." When that time arrives it is natural to expect that public opinion will compel the negligent to take care of the product of their own back yards.

"The public," further remarks The Star, "should remember that the best breeding place for mosquities, and especially for that variety which causes malaria, is in the rain barrel, the stopped-up gutter, the neglected cistern, the old tin cans and countless other places of the same sort. A daily five-minute inspection of premises will be enough to eliminate at least 75 per cent. of the mosquitoes." If such an inspection became a widespread habit throughout the State the mosquito population would suffer great lessening. We feel that the Wilmington campaign methods are worth the closest attention, because the problem, although somewhat modified by local conditions, presents numerous points of similarity elsewhere.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Cures Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Co. has sold dozens of jars of Hokara in the last few weeks, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing to them is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief and cure in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara will give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases will be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal-sized jar at the very low price of 25c and with every package goes their guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory. Larger size, 50c.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

The Louisiana Southern was controlled largely by an English syndicate represented by Mr. Samuel Gibbs.

ICE! ICE!! ICE!!!

-:-YES-:-

ICE! ICE!! and ICE!!!

One might almost be led to believe that this community had never seen Pure Ice until this good year 1911.

A great man once said "there is nothing new under the sun" and this is so to a great extent when it comes to the manufacture of ice.

Now, as a matter of fact, The Independent Ice Company has been for ten years and is still making as pure, as clean, as healthful to use ice as can be found in all North Carolina. We defy anyone to prove to the contrary. Our prices are as low as the lowest. We give full guaranteed weight. Our service is the best Wilmington ever had. We have a polite, accommodating corps of officials who will thank any one to report any act of neglect or discourtesy on the part of our wagon drivers or helpers.

Do the right thing for yourselves and for ourselves by taking ice from the old reliable.
